Message of Saint Joseph for the month of April 2020

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today we begin the month of April, a month of renewal and hope.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

With love and affection,

Message of Saint Joseph.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering. Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering. Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.

Let us pray for the world and for all those who are suffering.
