

2020, 4, 17

Message of Saint Joseph, 2020, April 17

Dear friends, I am writing to you from the heart.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.

I want to tell you that I am here, I am with you, I am always with you, I am always with you, I am always with you.