Message of the Virgin Mary, 11/19/2012, 11:19 AM

Dear Mother,

I am writing to you from the heart, from the love that fills me, from the joy that I feel, from the peace that I have found.

I thank you for everything, for the love that you have given me, for the grace that you have granted me, for the strength that you have given me.

I pray for you, Mother, I pray for the world, I pray for all people.

I pray for the poor, for the sick, for the suffering, for the lonely, for the forgotten, for the abandoned.

I pray for the children, for the young, for the old, for the young, for the old, for the young, for the old.

I pray for the world, Mother, I pray for the world.

I pray for the world, Mother, I pray for the world, I pray for the world, I pray for the world.

I pray for the world, Mother, I pray for the world, I pray for the world, I pray for the world.

I pray for the world, Mother!

I pray for the world,

I pray for the world, Mother,
