Dear friends, I am writing to you from the heart of the Virgin Mary, your Mother and your Queen. I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you. I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

Dear friends,

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you. I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you. I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you. I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you!

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.

I want to tell you that I am always with you, protecting you and watching over you.
