1 In the prayer of the Rosary, you will find the ladder of Light that will elevate you and remove you from any danger.

2 Allow merciful prayer to be a bridge for you to the Heart of God.

3 Believe that, despite your deepest miseries, the Love of My Son and His Mercy will be able to place you in another reality.

4 My Heart is the Temple of God that unconditionally opens to receive all of humanity and thus help it to find the path toward the Light, Mercy, and goodness.

5 May the Grace that descends from the Father's Heart and crosses My Chaste Heart touch your lives.

6 Children, use discernment, use the word correctly, may nothing be wasted. Be people of love and kindness.

7 In the prayer of the Rosary, you will find the ladder of Light that will elevate you and remove you from any danger.

8 Through My Heart, find the perfect reason to unite in spirit with God and thus be able to capture the impulses of the Divine Source.

9 In prayer, unite your spirit with the Spirit of the Father, and grow in virtue, in gratitude, and in love, because the world needs it.

10 Be ambassadors of peace and no longer live hatred, revenge or discord. Be more merciful, and Divine Mercy will reach the world.

11 Feel My Presence within you and the great Universe of Love that expands inside you, and how your soul is embraced by the balm of this most potent Divine Energy.

12 Listen to the voice of God within you, unmistakable, impassive, transmitting stillness to your soul and strength to your heart.

13 May this world be bathed in the light of the Most High God and may hearts receive from the Father the awakening that their souls long for.

14 I ask you, on this day, that those who are most aware of My call pray with Me for world peace.

15 Feel the strength of the Love of God and cover yourself with His Mantle of pure Mercy.

16 Mystery among mysteries is the Love that God invites you to receive, to live, to multiply and to share with the world today.

17 Have faith and persevere, unite above yourselves; be bearers of My Celestial Peace. I will always be with you until the end of days.

18 May your consciousness expand and may everything be healed and redeemed in this expansion.

19 Stop your heart for an instant and look within yourself; ask yourself how far you have advanced in love and in fraternity.

20 In nature that lies the healing that each of you needs, not only the healing of the ill body, but also the spiritual healing that millions of souls need.

21 Let the Laws between Heaven and Earth be re-established. Let the weapons and wars stop. Let innocent blood and the blood of animals no longer be spilled.

22 Let My Mercy make you grow in degrees of love so that, one day, you may have the capacity to love, just as I loved each one of you.

23 What you conquer in the world belongs to it, but what you conquer for God is eternal and is multiplied beyond dimensions.

24 Live in simplicity, so as to live in communion with Creation. Defend nature from yourselves.

25 Let My Mercy fill you until you discover the power it has for cases which are impossible or difficult to overcome.

26 Revere the mysteries of God, recognizing your ignorance and loving to enter into the Divine Wisdom.

27 When you do not have quietude within, seek to return to the peace of your heart so that every experience you go through serves the growth of the goodness within your being.

28 The real path of transformation means seeing beyond oneself, understanding one's fellow being, seeking the beauty of the differences that may exist between human beings.

29 Each time you exercise and practice My Mercy, a miracle of love is generated in your soul and in the soul of the planet.

30 Today, child, simply revere the Presence of God and let Him renew you and reveal to you the truth of your heart.

31 At this time, My children, you must carry forward truth and sincerity with My Son so that He may make of you souls of charity, mercy and goodness.

32 From My Light comes the Renewing Source, the impulse that will bring about the awakening of consciousness to humankind of the surface.
