

Impulses of Saint Joseph

July 2018

Phrases extracted from the daily messages of the Chaste Heart

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 On recognizing that you have fallen, stand up and continue walking, because later on, you will be able to open the eyes of others so that they may avoid so many falls.	2 Serve and sacrifice in peace and with valor, for selfless service will help you discover the truth of the grandeur of the Plan of God.	3 In the world, and even around you, there are greater needs than your own and greater problems than your own purification.	4 Love the times that you live, certain that God's triumph in your lives will be gestated in the occasionally uncomfortable transformations; they will always be worth it, though.	5 From the Supreme Consciousness of the Creator is born the Ray of Will, a principle used by God to manifest His works in the world, in the universe, and within all.	6 It is the Ray of Will that allows creatures to move beyond the layers of illusion and find what is real.	7 In times of spiritual inertia, so that you do not stagnate or move backward in evolution, you need to know the Ray of Will, which in no way is similar to personal will.
8 The Ray of Will is the possibility of being able to experience the Will of God in your own heart, and thus, be in accordance with what He hopes for from His creatures.	9 To tread the spiritual path is like climbing a great spiraling staircase, and at each turn you take, you may find an obstacle imposed by your own consciousnesses.	10 The beings of the Earth got attached to the human way of life and, confused, clung more to pleasure than the unique teaching of Christic love, to be experienced only in this world.	11 When the being wakes up to the true purpose of their existence, they must overcome the aspects acquired by life on Earth that do not adhere to the purpose of their consciousness.	12 The vehicle for you to reach the Ray of Will is the material attribute that precedes it; that which is called effort, and also, persistence.	13 I do not tell you to not think, not feel, and not act in a certain way; I ask you to make an effort to stop the flow of thoughts and fantasies that lead you to the abyss.	14 Standing up after each fall and keeping within the spirit of faith, you will find the Will of God and will merge with It, so that you may experience your transformation in Christ.
15 You need peace, persistence, and Divine Will to dissipate the fear, despair, false power, and personal will of the human consciousness.	16 To cry out for peace and for mercy is the first step in the transformation of the consciousness.	17 First the mind prays, and gradually, it begins to listen to the heart. Then the soul sighs in relief at finally finding a reason for being attentively in the world.	18 Prayer after prayer, the mind gradually learns to experience stillness and yields the space for the heart to also command in the day to day.	19 The path of transformation is long and only God knows its results.	20 God, who is pure Love and Mercy, will draw upon the perseverance of His children to one day launch them into holiness.	21 Have hope, for despite your imperfection you are on the path of transformation and with love and patience you will be able to make of your spirit and essence a triumph of God.
22 When the Will of God is expressed for the Universe, all the stars and all the evolutionary consciousnesses unite with that Divine Purpose.	23 It is the Laws of Obedience and of Unity, which reign in the confederated worlds, that allow the dissolution of all the obstacles that are created against Higher Will.	24 In order for the Will of God to manifest on Earth, the consciousnesses that respond to His Plan and that love it above all things, must unite with that Purpose.	25 You need to adhere to Divine Purpose and demonstrate this, not only in your word, but also in your actions and with your effort to live your own transformation.	26 The Lord has already given the ultimatum on the Plan of Earth, and asks for clear definitions from the spirits incarnated on it.	27 Inwardly, beings recognize the need for an imminent change; but recognizing that need is not enough; actions are needed from the spirits in evolution.	28 The Creator will make His Solar Power descend as a sign that He is giving the best of the Universe as a guide for all, so that they may feel the impulse to surrender everything.
29 If a few firm their surrender and adherence to the fulfilling of the Plan, this will be the permission the Creator needs to take full action in all of the planetary consciousness.	30 Now more than ever, you will need to develop the spirit of faith and put fraternity and unity into practice, something that you have been learning in the end times.	31 Darkness will resist, but from persistence will be born Love, the beginning of the triumph of God in the human heart.
