DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

When a consciousness truly awakes to a higher life and to the necessity of manifesting this life on the planet, all of humanity receives an opportunity of living a learning on the basis of a profound love.

When the essence of compassion touches the depths of beings, it leads them to awaken the love that God expects from His creatures. For this I call you to find in the neighbor and in the neediest ones, materially as well as spiritually, the keys so that they may live this awakening.

All the words that I give to the world have the purpose of taking humanity to the demystification of life upon the Earth, and to be able to leave the entanglements of superficiality in order to recognize what truly matters in this time.

I know that the earthly atavisms are so old that it costs you much to leave them; I know that you live lapses of awakening and eons of drowsiness. But, now, the events themselves of the world, the words of the Divine Messengers and the experiences that your brothers and sisters are living of abrupt awakening in the whole world must be enough for that you can place yourselves to truly serve on behalf of the Plans of God.

When I tell you of the Plans of God, many ask themselves what it means. The essence of the Plans of the Creator is very simple and it is to reach those who are capable of overcoming personal appearances and entering their own inner world in order to discover what they truly are.

My beloved ones, time is pressing so that those who are committed with God since the beginning may assume their positions in the Celestial Army; but not only those who already listen to us have this mission. You were called to be engines that impel the awakening of humanity; you were called to live a little more difficult stage, to open paths and to bring down the internal and external structures of the human consciousness, in order that when you reach the goal, other can be served by your examples to take their own steps with more courage and speed.

There are many souls that are in the world, waiting to find in human beings a concrete example to follow. But, even though they have a higher purpose and a true aspiration, they lack a material example of how to act, in order that they can leave the theories and live a real experience of a superior, spiritual and divine life.

Those who today listen to Our Voice are called to renounce their own existence and all material plans, to assume a Superior Plan, in the name of those who will follow their steps.

Remember that the human consciousness is unitary and many depend on your courage and persistence to find God.

I love you and I bless you.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
