

Monday, April 9 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF DE AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Those who offend and embarrass My Heart by their sins, faults or omissions are not those who are beside Me and who persist; they are those who for different reasons have distanced themselves from the guidance of My Hand and of My Will in order to carry out their own.

That hurts Me more than all the sins that souls who are by My side can generate.

In truth, My Mercy expands to those most miserable and imperfect; but it is not poured out upon the traitors or the unjust because everything begins with a Law that is unchangeable and autonomous, and as all righteousness and the good comes from that Law, your Master and Lord is governed by it and cannot alter it.

The shame that My Heart feels is for those who once were with Me and now turn their backs to Me, not believing in My Words and even less in My actions.

And even though your Master already knew the destiny of those who are ungrateful, the Love of My meek Heart did not stop loving them for a moment so that some space of their consciousness may be moved to awaken and learn to truly love.

But now they are faces of clay, about to fall from their own weight.

I ask you, companions, to quickly learn from all of this so that at the most critical time nothing surprises you.

If in truth and wholeheartedly you surrender to Me, nothing will happen to you.

Do not even think about acting or doing everything like the clay-faced ones did, who left, dismissed by themselves, who cannot find a place or even manage to return.

Today I speak to you clearly because I hope this is not repeated in any of you.

Thanks to the Father, the nest of snakes have already been expelled to its own abyss since, in truth, in a proud way, they love to be there more than with Me.

I thank you for making My Words flesh in your heart!

Who blesses you,

Your Master, Christ Jesus