

Sunday, November 17 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Smile at life so that the brilliance of your soul will shine facing the darkness.

Rejoice completely, as you have entered into the ocean of My Graces.

Serve without delay, so that your being will donate itself completely.

Open yourself to the new because this way you will be conducted.

Look forward and you will see, reflected in Heaven, the perfect design of My Sacred Heart.

Donate yourself to God; this is the motto for this time and this donation shall always be joyful so that hope will open the new paths in life.

Adore Me completely; thus your spirit will be united with My Greater Commands.

It is time to surrender oneself without fear, because there is no greater value than doing all for love to the Plan of God.

Never forget that the path of Christ is the path offered to all, but only a few are able to throw themselves entirely into My Arms, because they know that I will ask of them unattainable things.

But it will not be any greater than what you are able to realize; My Works are simple and true; My Works want to take all the children of God to Paradise.

You shall recognize in humility that which I ask of you, because it will be necessary for the redemption of the world.

Under the Sublime Grace of God, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Eternal Heart!

Christ Jesus