APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 76th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF BOGOTÁ, COLOMBIA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

What humankind of the surface does not know today, the peoples of the past knew, because they were in absolute contact with God. They knew the reality of the Universe, of this solar system and beyond, without having physical tools or applying their minds to understanding or observing if this was true or not.

What is it that allowed these original peoples to know the truth? What is it that caused them to persist over time, before the white man arrived in America?

Their culture was the true religion that they experienced, because that culture was united with the Love of God, and it was this Love that allowed all the peoples to know the Truth and the Cosmos. In a simple and easy way, they tried to represent what they saw and recognized.

But the history of humanity has still not been fully revealed. That is why, previous to the original peoples, sacred and inner Enclosures were opened in the interior of the Earth that, like a great mirror, held all that greater knowledge that was known in detail by the peoples of the past.

That information still lives and vibrates in these Enclosures. It is this information and this knowledge that humanity needs in order to again rise up to the consciousness of God and to understand that in this time they have chosen the god of modernity and of technology, completely substituting their inner contact with the Universe.

For that reason, companions, and through this Pilgrimage for Peace, your Master and Lord comes to Colombia to have you revive that sacred knowledge which many were part of in the past. So in this way, My Hands remove a veil from your consciousnesses today, so that your spirituality may awaken and you make contact with your origin and your beginning.

Although many of the peoples who lived in the past were exterminated, were not understood nor even valued, the spiritual Hierarchy recognized and valued them, and today they are in spirit and essence, not only as a culture, but also as a brotherhood within those Enclosures.

In the same way that Colombia and all the Andes safeguard them, this expression of the Divine Truth and the deepening of universal knowledge must be the basis for your support for this time, above all for this time of transition and of tribulation.

Today I want to tell you, companions, that the peoples of America came before My arrival on Earth. This is what the white man did not understand, that rejected this truth, that did not plunge into the knowledge to understand it and feel it, in the same way that each one of the cultures in America understood it and felt it.

In this way, you will be able to understand today, companions, that these peoples are more sacred than I am sacred because their evolution, their consciousness, and their awakening were not only measured by their union with nature and the respect they had for all that was created, but also, companions, they achieved this awakening and this consciousness through degrees of love that are what the current humanity needs to reacquire and experience.

For this reason, you must serve and give of yourself all the time, because the whole of humanity as a culture and civilization has lost the values of the past. That is why it is in the situation it is in; that is why today nations experience what they experience, because they distanced themselves from the wisdom and the love that the original peoples knew and lived through their contact with the Primordial Source.

Is it that in this situation of the original peoples Christic Love does not exist?

Of course it exists, companions. That is why they are so sacred and more sacred than I was for you. Because the Father gave them His gifts, His knowledge and revelations, as He did with the patriarchs and the prophets.

Through the ages, humanity only placed itself in the story of the Middle East. But what really happened beyond the Middle East and on all the continents; were there not more sacred peoples than those who existed there?

Yes, there were many sacred peoples throughout the Americas who were decimated by the white man because of their ambition for power and conquest that completely blinded their hearts. And in the end, it caused them to realize that they made a mistake, beyond all that they took from these sacred lands, because in the same way that nature is sacred, the knowledge of the original peoples is sacred. A true Gospel resides in them, not like in Christianity. It is the Gospel of simplicity, of brotherhood, and of unity with the Kingdoms of Nature and of their true contact with the greater Universe.

That is why I had to return to Earth many times, it was not the first time as Jesus. Humanity always had to be corrected and guided, because it always left the path of Light and of Love.

This is why this human genetic Project is so important to the Celestial Father. If America reacquires its origins, cultural roots, and especially its union with the Universe, as it experienced in previous times, a great many situations will be avoided.

I am not telling you to believe in God, but rather that you believe in the life that God gave you; that you believe in the Universe, in the galaxies, in the suns, and in the stars that are above you.

Contemplate the starry sky one night and ask yourself: who am I? Have you ever done it? Never cease to do so, and the Father will give you His revelation, just as He gave His revelations to the sacred peoples.

In all of this, companions, is divine unity, the Presence of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit that the original sacred peoples understood and experienced in another way; that is why they were strongly rejected and hurt.

And in truth, companions, where was the wisdom, the true wisdom in past times? In the East or the West? Today I tell you the truth, that the true wisdom was in the hearts of those who experienced purity, simplicity, humility, and union with the Celestial Father.

But the original peoples were not understood, not only because of their way of life or their culture, but also because of their cosmogony. They reached levels of supra-consciousness, which makes them the representatives of the Brotherhood on the surface of the Earth and you have the opportunity, companions, of being part of that Brotherhood.

Spiritual life does not end in the sacred books, but rather in the true experience of love and of redemption that each one can experience, as those peoples experienced it. Because everything they had and all they received in those days was sacred and blessed to them.

The humanity of these times has completely lost the essence of its culture. Thus, at this moment, it is a necessity for the Hierarchy that the humanity of today, which has distanced itself from the Father and from the path of Will, may be able to return to its origins through its service of love to the original peoples, because indeed in them you will find the essence of love for Creation and for life. And you will feel yourselves to be a part of it, because in the simplicity you will be in communion with that which is High.

I do not come to ask you for the impossible, rather I come to ask you, companions, for the simplest practice of all practices: it is to always place yourself in the love and the Brotherhood of God, so that you can constantly find the meaning of being here on this planet and to know that this material life does not end here, that the true life which is inner and spiritual, causal and profound, follows its path and its trajectory just as the peoples followed it, in total trust and in union with Creation.

I come to revive these values in Colombia so that the superficial and stingy life can come to an end and in your hearts you feel the need of returning to God; because it will be important in this time, just as the original peoples did, to always seek an inner contact with the Universe. Because the times are difficult and will be more difficult; your only way out will be the inner contact with that which is Greater, with the infinite, with the Source, with what is non-material, just as the original peoples experienced it.

Do not allow your original roots to be erased from your consciousness, live with love and with joy that you attained over the course of time, which comes from the life of the spirit and of union with the Universe, and in this way, companions, in the name of all humanity, you will be within universal life as the Hierarchy is.

That is why, through words, through teachings, and especially through love, I come to place in Colombia and to reintegrate in the consciousness of its people, the opportunity and especially the Grace, of reviving those cultural and spiritual values ??that the sacred peoples of the Andes left shaped in the consciousness of the ether of this place.

This will be the unique opportunity for re-acquiring the path toward the infinite and toward the Universe and to feel yourself part of the macrocosm. In this way, your inner stars will shine, and someday these stars will become fleeting suns that will illumine the end of times, the times of darkness and the times of tribulation. And the true divine essence at the center of each being will emerge as a single consciousness, deeply united with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

And so you will assert My Celestial Church, which comes to the aid of the men and women of the Earth and also of the Church that is on the surface of the Earth, very reviled and wounded by its own members.

I come to rekindle the values that the conquerors and the Church did not know; that they rejected, repudiated and did not recognize in the simplest men and women of this planet, who lived along the Andes, in a deep inner contact with Creation and with the Divine Brotherhood.

It is time for the doors to Truth to be opened and for you to discover the true Christianity that is based on the essence of My Love, which is present as a seed of light in the heart of those who believe, so that the Divine Will may be fulfilled.

Colombia today is ignited by the light of Guatavita and its ancestors. United in essence with you, they pray for you and for your people at this very moment, imploring God for His Mercy and His Grace and so that the unfathomable Source of His Wisdom may cause hearts to acknowledge that they have lost their way because of the distraction of the world illusion, and that it is time step back onto the path toward the origin.

United in love and in essence to all those sacred and blessed consciousnesses that had the knowledge of God prevail on the surface of the Earth and that many, but many of them, were converted in that living knowledge of the Father, today I deeply aspire to Colombia and all the sister nations of the Andes rekindling in your hearts those divine and inner values ??that will enable you to be in brotherhood and far from the chaos of these times, so that through you not only the Source of universal peace be established, but also the Source of harmony, which will heal the wounded hearts.

In the face of this scenario, in the face of this conjuncture, we will celebrate the Eucharist, and through it, the reintegration in your consciousnesses and spirits of those divine values, sacred knowledge that the original peoples experienced in the name of humanity. Amen.

When humankind of the surface is able to feel as the mineral Kingdom feels, as the plant Kingdom feels, as the animal Kingdom feels, and thus as the devic and elemental Kingdom feels, it will be able to open its heart to purity and understand that everything around it is not edible, but rather sacred and blessed.

In this moment we will lift up our offerings to the Universe.

We invite you to stand up for this consecration of the Eucharist.

At this time, feel yourself to be not only in a spiritual ceremony with My merciful Heart, but also feel yourself to be participants in a sacred ceremony as the original peoples experienced it, to worship and praise God.

This is a time of the renewal of vows, this is a time of commitment and is the time to see the truth that can awaken in each heart that believes in the divine reality.

We will raise our intentions to the Father, we will open our hearts to His Will, just like the original peoples opened their consciousnesses to universal knowledge.

Each one, at this moment, in the silence of your heart, perform this exercise of forgiveness and of reconciliation with the past so that in this present, we may be renewed by the Compassion of God, an infinite expression of His Mercy.

We invite those who can do so to kneel for this consecration.

In this moment we relive the legacy of Love that Christ left us through the institution of the Eucharist.

And as if it was in that time, we enter into the Last Supper and we offer our beings, our lives in honor of the Love of God, and thus we are renewed, reconciled and united with the Source of the Father.

When Jesus was gathered together with His apostles, He took the bread, lifted it up, and gave thanks to the Father for the sacrifice and the surrender He would experience. The bread was blessed. He then gave it to His apostles, saying to them: "Take and all eat of It, for this is My Body that will be delivered for humankind for the forgiveness of sins."

Prayer: We praise you Lord and bless You (repeated three times). Amen

Then Christ took the Cup with His hands, raised it up to be blessed, and reaffirmed within His Being the surrender and sacrifice He would make for each one of us. After having been blessed, he gave it to His apostles, saying to them, "Take and drink, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the new covenant that will be shed by Your Redeemer for the forgiveness of faults. Do this always in remembrance of Me."

Prayer: We praise you Lord and bless You (repeated three times). Amen.

On the Mount of Beatitudes, gathered together with the multitudes, our Lord taught us the simplest but most profound prayer in existence, the Our Father. In union with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, we will pray this prayer to finish consummating the consecration.

Prayer: Our Father.

We may stand.

I always give you Peace so that you may experience it and multiply it in the hearts that have nothing, that live in solitude and uncertainty, so that the peace that you may be able to propagate will cause you to renew all your brothers and sisters under the impulse of love and of hope.

Now yes, a special time has come for Your Master and Lord, because now your souls have been consecrated to the Will of God and with this intention and this cause, I will expand this consecration, as I did with the elements; but today I will consecrate My new assistants, who will commit to be the help through the altars for those who seek the Peace and Mercy of God.

Bring the rings, the veils. and the oil for anointing.

Lord of the Universe, You Who grant the opportunity and the infinite Grace that all may love You, today I offer Myself as Your instrument, as Your beloved Son and intercessor of souls, so that through the Mercy I achieved in the moment of expiring on the Cross, souls may receive the Grace of always being able to recognize You and serve You for all eternity. Amen.

Cover these daughters of Mine with the mantle of My Celestial Mother so that they may always remember Her original purity and the opportunity to eternally gift themselves, as My Mother gifts Herself for each one of Her children. Amen.

In the same way that the holy women anointed My wounded and whipped Body, today with this oil I anoint those who always belonged to Me and who return to Me in unconditional service. Amen

I recognize the Truth of God in the simplest.

Today your name will be Nazarena.

Your name today will be María del Renacimiento.

Your name will be Victoria de la Cruz.

The Blood of Christ, the Body of Christ (to each one).

Let us say goodbye to our Master, carrying the impulse of His love in our heart and in fraternity we will give each other the greeting of peace.

We may greet each other.
