SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN QUEBEC, CANADA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 125TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Behold the immaterial staircase to the Heavens. This is the path of ascension that I offer to the souls that decide to be with Me in this time, a preparatory preamble to the Return of the Redeemer.

Do the souls that follow Me perceive this spiritual offering that I make to them?

Because to climb the first part of this spiritual and celestial staircase, the first step for the souls that follow Me is the divestment of the self, the total emptying of any intention and absolute humbling, in order to understand, under the Humility of God, what your Master and Lord offers to you in this time as spiritual steps toward the ascension of consciousness.

Even while you live on this surface, even while you still live known and unknown experiences, this celestial staircase towards the Heavens, I offer to the souls that have understood the Path of the Lord and have decided to follow it under the precepts of My Divine Will. Because this spiritual and celestial staircase will always lead you toward the unknown, to all that which you cannot touch with your own hands, it will lead you to all that which you cannot see with your own physical eyes, but which each being will be able to understand with their heart and essence.

These are the abstract mysteries of God that are presented to the souls of the world. The choice of following this path of ascension depends on each heart and soul; for what awaits you after the portal that leads and guides you to the Heavens, is something wonderful and unknown.

For this reason, companions, souls are looking at this time, and through different paths, for an answer that does not exist externally, but in the interior, they are looking for a solution in what is material, whereas in truth, the solution lies in what is spiritual. There lies the answer that many times you seek and cannot find.

But in truth I tell you that not all will understand, because you will never know it all until you definitively achieve this divestment that is so expected by the Eternal Father, which will lead you to understand, with a different awareness and perspective, the same spiritual and material reality that the Hierarchy lives.

It is in this universal and unique view, in the view of the Spiritual Hierarchy, that souls will be able to understand and learn in what direction the Hierarchy has decided to walk, and what is the path drawn by the Will of God for these times. But unfortunately, in this end time, souls decide to place their minds and hearts on other paths that are not My Paths, but rather the paths of the world.

Each soul and heart of this humanity has their place to live their experience, but also their path, which is already written by the Eternal Father Himself.

As long as souls do not decide to follow the Path of the Lord, they will not only be wasting time that is precious to God, but you will also miss the opportunity to find for yourselves the treasures of Heaven, those spiritual and inner treasures that I keep in My Sacred Heart as an abundant and inexhaustible Source for souls, a Source of Graces and Mercies.

Do you now understand where the gaze of the world is, what the eyes of this humanity observe?

Because while the events precipitate on the planet, the guardian angels, sent by the Celestial Thrones, wait for souls to decide to take the first step and climb to the first part of this spiritual and celestial staircase.

The angelic procession is ready for this moment. But time has an end, just as time has a beginning. This is the moment not to delay and not to miss the opportunities of the universe. Because these opportunities, granted to souls, pass as a sacred impulse just once, expecting that many more may give a response.

This is why I come as the Lord of the Universe and Life because, by the Grace that the Eternal Father has granted Me, I can know the Purpose for each being.

Meanwhile, I will be here, waiting for the last ones, who were called to ascend through this spiritual and celestial staircase, to understand that we are at the preamble and at the great moment to prepare the Return of Christ for all the Inner Christs of this humanity.

And this will not take place through a miracle. This will take place through the cooperation and collaboration of souls, all those who can open up to learn to recognize the need for service and surrender at each place, especially in the places where you do not even imagine, or even where you least expected, because God writes just as He has determined.

Nothing is by chance for God. For God, there are only causes and motives, there are determinations and reasons for Him to concretize His Will through souls, through those who have decided to follow Him in fidelity, in Love, without conditions.

Today, the Hierarchy starts its second and last stage of pilgrimage in North America. This is the moment when the effort of all apostles will be seen. An effort that is not measured nor is it a constrained effort; it is a mature effort of someone who understands they are with Christ and for Christ, because they know that their life is a path of constant self-giving, to unite and merge with Christ, into His Essence of Love-Wisdom.

This is what I need from all My disciples, each one knows the ring that corresponds to them within the Work of Redemption.

My Heart will always be your center and guidance, the Source of all inspiration and Grace, the relief for all needs, the Light for the path, on the only path.

May this Marathon of Divine Mercy elevate to the Heavens all intentions, through the prayers of all those who are consistent with Christ, those who no longer allow themselves to retrogress, but rather advance, those who clearly know what I need in this time.

May this Marathon of Divine Mercy contemplate, through hearts, the sacred intentions of Christ for those He needs to take their steps in this constant quest of the live of consecration and service, so that someday, on this surface of the planet, the apostles and followers of Christ may be ambassadors of peace.

Let us pray, in this Marathon, for Canada to protect and safeguard its spiritual archetype and purpose, especially through the Kingdoms of Nature, which are the living and authentic expression of the Creative Love of the Father, which exists to heal and redeem you, which exists to impel you to self-giving, just as the Lower Kingdoms of Nature have done since the origin of this planet.

My blessing of Peace to all, from Canada to the whole world.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
