

Saturday, January 4 of 2025

SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERIAS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 133rd MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

To follow My path, there is a single pathway, which is the pathway of the heart, a safe pathway protected from any interpretation and interference.

If the disciple does not walk with their heart, they will be lost, because their own human persona will confuse them.

Has the disciple realized when they have walked on the pathway of the heart, but also when they have not?

That is the keynote of this time, to follow the path of the Heart of the Master so that, in this time of tribulation, the Holy spirit may guide you through Me, by means of Its Gifts and Graces.

The pathway of the heart is a path that is always open and, I would say, unforgettable, because the pathway of the heart is guided by the spirit of each being, when the human person allows their spirit to act and work.

Imagine that, if your Master and Lord had not given His life through the path of the heart, even at Calvary, how could He have consummated His surrender during His Death on the Cross?

The path and the pathway of the Heart, sooner or later leads the disciple into dying to the self, so that I, as Master and Lord, will be able to be born again in them.

But this path of the heart must show itself to each one; you must seek it incessantly through your good works and prayers. Because the path of the heart is the path of those who humble themselves before Christ, of those who no longer want anything for themselves, but rather the common good of humanity.

What I tell My disciples today will seem simple to you, but I know who lives the path of the heart and who does not.

I patiently hope that many more may feel encouraged to walk on the path of the heart in order to discover their true self and their true essence; because it will not be in the explanations that you will find the path of the heart, but rather in the absolute conviction of aspiring to live in God, of aspiring to find My Heart, that you may be one in Me, just as I Am One in all of you so My Father, Who is in the Heavens, may be in you.

The great saints and disciples of the East, the seekers of truth, those who really seek the truth and do not condition it, lived the path of the heart. At some point in their walk, they found that path.

And many of those saints and disciples of the East had to give up their own accomplishments and also their own aspirations. Because to reach the end of this path, which is My Heart itself, there is a single condition so that your lives and the lives of your brothers and sisters are able to definitively live in My Heart: it is the condition of divestment.

It seems a simple word, but is not, because holiness is achieved through the path of the heart and will never be reached through the path of illusion.

What are the illusions that still surround your consciousness?

What are the dreams that coexist within you and are not dreams of God?

In light of all this, what is the rule of your lives? What is the code of your evolution?

What is the reason for being here before Me today, responding to My Call?

You could ask Me the same:

What is the reason for You still being here, Lord?

What moves You to come from Heaven to the Earth, to live this great encounter with souls?

What makes You untiring, Lord, patient, humble and loving?

What drives You to come here; even, Lord, when around You, You find almost everything in ruins?

What is the answer?

Love, which is what led Me to go to the Cross to be crucified, to die and be buried; because God Himself, in His human persona, allowed Himself to die so that you could be resurrected. And I know that this is still part of a divine mystery, incomprehensible at this time.

But it is an act of Love that your Master died on the Cross; that He is here today, hoping that many more should decide, for once and for all, to follow the path and the pathway of the Heart so you may understand the reason for My Will and My ardent desire for souls.

As I told you some months ago, now is the time and now is the moment for each one to walk on their own feet, but without crawling along with lamentations or in your lack of understanding, that you walk determined and firm in your love, in the Sacred Teachings that I have given you for such a long time.

For the time has come to act through what has been taught and conveyed to you by My Heart. Meanwhile, the world that suffers, the souls that are hurt, the hearts that agonize without seeing love, light and truth, wait for decided disciples and servers.

I want you wholly with Me, because such a broad and unknown Will cannot be concretized and realized in tepid hearts, for it would be unsustainable.

I am always here to show you the path and the way out. The signs have already been clear. The impulses have already been given. The Mercy has been distributed and shared among all, as well as My Grace, through the blessing of the Holy Sacraments.

May this amnesty, which My Celestial Mother has granted to you in these days of a positive spiritual conjunction, be well used and may souls respond well to it, because there is only one reason for all this, which is that through the souls surrendered at My Feet, My Will may be accomplished.

This why I come here time after time to knock on the door of your hearts, even though you may have already heard Me. But have you truly heard Me? Have you truly submerged yourselves in My Message? Where are the talents that I come looking for?

It cannot remain only in books; My Word is an act of communion so it may live ardently in hearts. My Word is a living water that quenches all thirst, for there will not be any holiness in this life without crossing the desert.

If your Master and Lord lived it, why could you not experience the dark night? If I Am the Light of the world for you, what darkness do you fear?

Thus, I come to dispel the darkness, mainly within hearts. My Word will be sown time and again in the hearts that trust in Me.

Here is the pathway of the heart for everybody. Will you walk on it?

Think about what I tell you. Meditate on what I give you. Embrace what I grant to you. Because I am already leaving to prepare Myself for the great moment.

And in the most culminating moments of the world and of humanity, when I will no longer be able to come here, you must remember and re-live these moments, the countless Graces that were given and poured out, like so many stars in the universe.

May this be honored and valued through the consistency of your attitudes, and above all, through your surrender to My Heart.

I come to speak to the disciples who have already walked for a long time. I come to speak to adult, aware and awakened people.

It is this that will make My Work possible on Earth, especially in these times, when love and peace must be the premise, the first rule of life, so that all manage to be supported, because this is brotherhood.

On this first day, before celebrating Holy Communion, empty your hearts so My Words are able to enter and work within you, like small sparks of Light that come from the source of My Love, from My unfathomable Mercy.

Let My Peace permeate each sphere of the Earth.

Let My Peace permeate and deepen into each heart.

Let each cell and atom receive My Peace, so that healing and forgiveness may be achieved.

By this Peace that reigns today and fills us in the Kingdom of the Heavens, I bless you and thank you for being here, for seeking your Lord in the truth of the heart.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.