

Friday, November 13 of 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SÃO LEOPOLDO, RIO GRANDE DOSUL, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When the Heavens announce the last hour of the salvation of a planet, the souls that inhabit it have a choice: surrender to the abyss of the world and deny the perfection that exists within them, or definitely defeat the doubts and the fears that stop them from fully being within their spiritual mission.

You must understand that the trumpets that sound from the heights of Heaven announce the hour that you are to set aside mediocrity and begin to be completely filled by the Spirit of God.

In each instant of your lives, you must remember that it is now the time to take a leap into the life of the spirit.

Live each day as if it were the last, as if you were facing the last chance for forgiveness, of being reconciled with a neighbor, of providing a service that you were never able to provide, of giving up vain pleasures and likes that were always in your lives as small impediments, and that today have become large, because they do not allow you to reach the goal of your consciousness.

The time has come to assume universal life with the full awareness that you are in the school of Christification for the whole universe, and the time has come for living consequently with the opportunity given to you.

Just for an instant, think of being in the culminating moment of your lives. Think that, in the infinite cosmos, Creation is waiting for you to return with the experience of the Living Christ within your very spirit.

The universe awaits that, from the Universal King, there will come a race that can completely change the Creation of God and allow all creatures, that did not have the opportunity of being in this world, to live the Christic codes of love and unity.

You came to this planet to learn how to not live for yourselves, but rather for your neighbor. This is the essence of the lesson on Earth: surrender everything and endure everything for the evolution and growth of others. Meanwhile, up until now, you have only allowed for the growth of pride and egoism, which was brought from the universe and does not allow you to act for anything other than yourselves.

Christ left you the example. He did not come to the world to be a king. He became King because He was capable of setting Himself aside out of love for the creatures of His Father. Christ lived within Himself the Love of God for God's Creation. It was for the evolution of all Universal Creation that He surrendered His Life and continues to surrender all of Himself, even while being in Spirit of Divinity.

My dear and so loved companions, the time has come to grow by setting aside the old way of living and opening to the new, to spiritual virtues, to the real being, to love, to unity.

If you are soldiers of an army of peace, live peace, live love, live fraternity.

The Plan of the Most High God will be accomplished, and this will come about through your efforts and with the courage that you may become nothing, so that you may be filled by God.

I leave you My peace and My blessing for awakening.

Your companion of all eras.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph