Weekly Message of the Most Holy Queen of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Sister Lucía

Dear children,

Today I wanted to be among your small hearts so that, under My Mantle, you could settle the impulses you have received in these last days.

As Mother and Queen of Peace, I radiate, through your hearts My Peace to the whole world. I travel, with My Love, the path left by your sincere prayers; a path that leads to all beings, of all Kingdoms, who need My Presence.

Today, I want to leave you with an encouragement and a warning:

My encouragement is that, throughout the whole day, I listened to the voice of your hearts, and your souls were exultant with joy, touching the doors of My Kingdom. Know, therefore, that your little souls recognize the moment in which they live and glorify the Lord for all the opportunities you have received throughout these last two months.

And, as a warning, I say to you that the time has come for manifesting in your life the impulses of your souls, and this is achieved through prayer, fasting and a profound and real communion with My Son Jesus.

I tell you, also, that you must be firm in the purpose which your souls inspire you to live, for many are receiving the Grace of true awakening, and you must not waste it.

Be sincere in heart and in spirit, and follow the impulse of your most pure intentions, even though it may seem to you a real folly.

The life of prayer and of surrender, My children, is no longer considered normal in this world. The lack of love and of peace of those who submerge into modernities has become the common living of hearts and consciousnesses.

Many of those who today should be My Marian soldiers have forgotten the commitment they sealed with Me. Others, even though remembering this commitment, are afraid of abandoning themselves to follow Me. And a few, with courage, have disposed themselves to fulfill My Holy Will and follow My steps.

It is time to recognize where your consciousnesses are in this time; and recognizing that you are not where you should be, take your places among My soldiers and complement, with your precious souls, this army of Peace.

I do not come to make demands; I come to bring relief to your spirits, who are thirsting for true life, for fulfilling this mission that you came to carry out upon the world.

So, today, I only ask that you find in My Heart, the Heart of My Son, and in the great Heart of the Universe, the strength you need to take the steps that you aspire to take in these times.

Count on My maternal Presence. As Mother of your hearts, I am always beside each one of you.

I thank you for persisting on My path of Peace.

Mary, Queen of Peace
