DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF MINAS, LAVALLEJA, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Just as in the Universe, where a history exists, that is written in the great field of cosmic energy, in the same way, there are also spiritual moments in which all beings can take their step in evolution.

With this I mean that the Universe is dynamic, just as your inner universe is dynamic.

Your inner universe crystallizes when you resist the change that the Cosmos bring for all throughout the course of cycles.

Thus, universal dynamism allows cosmic energy, which is neutral, to be renewed, and through that renewal, the consciousness manages to concretize its steps without getting stuck in theory.

The analogy of all this is that, just as the Universe constantly moves, your inner universe also moves, and this is a part of a history that must be purified and redeemed under an absolute and powerful Cosmic Love. Because in this purification of what is apparently unknown, the consciousness is freed from many chains and oppressions that were generated and created by itself, but it will now become aware that a great change will allow it to experience a great and unique transformation.

It will not be pleasant to face that moment, but it is necessary not only for the being itself, but rather for the whole Universe which, in an offering, has been, since ancient times, supporting the weight of the debts brought about as a part of human ignorance.

This moment will bring healing, light and transcendence for the one who knows how to hold tight onto the Command of the Hierarchy.

I thank you for understanding the science of My Words!

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus
