WEEKLY MESSAGE TRANSMITTED BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, IN THE NUCLEUS OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children,

Today, as the Mother of Sacred Humility, I come to all My children to bring this presence of renunciation, detachment and surrender that I learned as Mary of Nazareth.

Each soul that enters into the true Christic path, that which is marked by My Son, Christ Jesus, begins to live this school of Sacred Humility; a totally new experience, unknown to humanity.

Much has been said and written on this Earth about Humility, but very few have been able to really experience it; it is so transforming that those who decide to receive it, in general, are not conscious that they are living it, and they think that they will never deserve to live it.

It is as soft as a spring breeze, as harmonious as the flowers that grow in the gardens of Heaven, and so powerful, yes, so powerful, that it dissolves any expression of property, self-realization, pride or self-love.

It is so majestic, as a queen without a kingdom, as a sword of love that softly cuts ties with matter, and so transparent, like a thread of light that strings the souls together in a perfect fabric, that unites them to eternal service to the Creator.

Beloved son, beloved daughter,

What about you, do you want to receive Sacred Humility in your life, the one that I lived and shared with Jesus and Joseph?

Do you want to know definitively what it means to be a humble consciousness?

Then, open your hearts, surrender your will to the Supreme, and eternally obey His Holy Will; in this way, never again will your small will be yours. Learn that My Beloved and Sacred Humility is found in the little actions of life, in anonymity, in patience and in simplicity.

In these times of so many transformations, some consciousnesses will be called by the Father to live the ways of Sacred Humility as apostles of Christ; the new apostles that will unite with Him in body, soul and spirit, to serve Him eternally.

Today, I leave you this reflection because some of you, who are present before Me on this day, will be disciples of the Sacred Humility of God.

Pray, be blessed, surrender your will to the Will of the Most High, and love your destinies.

Thank you for being today with Me.

Mary, Mother of Sacred Humility
