Message for the Vigil of Prayer of the Blessed Mother of God, transmitted in Lavras, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías

Hail Christ!

Dear children from Lavras and Minas Gerais,

With infinite joy, My maternal Heart once more opens the doors of Heaven to shed upon you Graces into your hearts.

My Immaculate Heart travels the world to awaken in due time all the children of God who should respond to the great call from Heaven.

My children, today I am present in Lavras as I have been during these days in Recife, Olinda, Teresópolis and Rio de Janeiro, to ask you once more to enter into the universe of the Love of God, because without love, the world cannot be healed.

The Love of the Father will allow you to find the perfect and harmonious path that your souls so much search for.

Live in the Love of Christ because in the Love of My Son you will reach redemption for your faults and you will receive the Mercy and forgiveness that your hearts need.

Dear children, try to remain in the Source of Love, in the Kingdom of Love of the Father and, this way, raise, through prayer, those who need this healing Love of God.

In Christ Jesus, may you walk through the path of Love, the Christic Love that many have lost in these times by the action of false love, which deceives and confuses the hearts who have the true path of the Love of God.

The Love of the Father must be your only choice and the art that awakens prayer will allow you to find the Source of Love.

If you try to experience the path of Love, you can lovingly experience the Kingdom of Peace and the Father will be adored with love by all His children throughout the Universe.

My dear ones, enter in time into the school of Love that will awaken the true act of prayer of the heart because prayer will allow you to always find the only Love for all that was created by God and so that your souls will be in perpetual rejoice of the universal Love.

If you decide, from now on, to learn to love God, you will start a path of experiencing the Love of God through all the experiences of life.

As Mother of the Love of God, I want this Love to be gestated in a true way in the hearts of the families, in the tasks that God orders, day by day, and, mainly, in each one of your consciousnesses.

The lack of love is what has erased charity and peace from the heart of human beings. Love will make you find peace, even more, make you experience the Love that the Sacred Heart of Jesus sheds each moment of your lives.

The absence of love has blinded many hearts because they have forgotten to love in the Love of God and started acting through personal love.

May the seed of the Love of Christ, which should gestate within your hearts, allow you to recognize the great infinite Love that the Father has for each of My children.

Walk together towards the meeting of Love that cures and heals the profound wounds, because it will be the Love of Jesus that will lead you to God and God will reveal to you, in silence, the precious gifts of His holy Will.

Therefore, dear children, what are you waiting for to renew yourselves in the Love of God?

Go with joy and spread the power of the Love of God within you, and show everybody how great the Mercy of God is, which can do all in each small soul of this world.

Dear children, if you experience the Love of Christ, day by day, as My Son has told you, you will see the truth and the path that the Father, with so much love, has designed for each one of His children.

Little children, be partakers of the Love that the Holy Spirit provides to the souls that are willing to experience the love of the spirit. Prayer is the path to experience the love of the spirit, the fraternal love that unites what is separated and builds the new through love and unity in every being.

The greatest suffering of humanity is the lack of Love of God because one easily forgets that the Love of the Father is in all things. See the power and the manifestation of the Love of God in the Kingdoms, what a true encounter of love you can experience, dear children, with a plant, a dog or even with a large forest!

Have you noticed that in each Kingdom lies the Love of God? Open your eyes and see how the Kingdoms suffer, because they do not receive the love of their fellow beings. The world suffers for lack of fraternal love between the Kingdoms and human beings.

What have My children done, those who have forgotten to love a fraternal Kingdom?

Where is the infinite love that God has handed to you through each of the Kingdoms?

Therefore, dear children, many of My Marian soldiers are lovingly dedicating themselves to the repair and the spiritual healing of each of the Kingdoms, because if the Kingdoms are outraged, God is also being wounded by His own children.

I call you to awaken love in your consciousness. It is time to sort out, through love, all that must be sorted out.

I bless with universal love all the wonderful work that so few of My children give for the salvation of the Kingdoms here in Lavras.

Remember that My Son was born in a manger and that, from that manger in Bethlehem, together with My Son, the Kingdoms interceded once again for the salvation of the world.

Remember that the donkey that took Mary, who was carrying the Son of God in Her womb, served Her in love for the Plan of the Father.

Remember that the waters of the Jordan interceded as Kingdom for the purification of the consciousnesses and for the redemption of the souls because, within the water, the Spirit of God was shed.

Dear children, see how wonderful the Love of the Father is, the one unknown to you, but now it is time to return to the Source of Love.

Go in Peace. Go in Christ and from now on transmit the Love of God in your hearts.

May the Love of the Father, the Love of the Son and the Love of the Holy Spirit live eternally within you.

I thank My children of Lavras for having received me with so much love!

Who blesses you in the holy Love of Jesus.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace
