

Monday, February 18 of 2013

MESSAGE BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TRANSMITTED TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children from the Earth:

My mantle of protection and light is upon you.

In these days in which My Marian soldiers peregrinate again with Me, I want to tell you all to take refuge in My arms of Mother so that you may not fear the tiredness nor the pressure that the enemy places upon you in this time.

Now, more than ever, is when you are with Me, within My Immaculate Heart.

You, children, who peregrinate with Me to wherever the Creator allows me to go, are like My angels on Earth, those who create the conditions so that I may reach all, as My guardian angels do.

They, as much as you, are part of My task of rescue, which is carried forward on Earth and in the Universe.

You are united to Me by an ancient love that has grown throughout time and with the work for souls. Our hearts have merged into one, a heart that loves, and this love is the permanent impulse for the salvation of humanity.

You will be with Me, passing through each place of this world that cries out for My presence. Prepare your hearts to live in Me, in the refuge of My Immaculate Heart, and in it, you will reach the most distant places in total peace and protection.

To My little children, who follow and love Me, God has conceded the infinite Grace of taking them directly to Paradise when the time so longed for comes. But I hope that you get to know the Kingdom of Heavens before this time that is still very distant, that you get to know it and visit it day by day when you enter into My Immaculate Heart.

Prepare yourselves, dear children, because our definite path before the coming of the Redeemer is beginning.

I guide you, I love you and I thank you for being with Me in the rescue of souls of this humanity.

Thank you for always responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.