Message for the apparition in the Marian Center of Aurora, transmitted by the Most Holy Mother of the Sun, the Virgin Mary, to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

I am the Mother of the Sun, because I am the One who gives life to the creatures of the world.

I am the Mother of the Sun, because I am the One who rises, every day, awakening within the lives of those who lived in darkness.

I am the Mother of the Sun, because I am the One who hides behind the storms and ordeals of My children, waiting for them to be able to live their learnings, to once more bring warmth into their lives.

I am the Light that illuminates the world.

I am the announcement of a new cycle.

I am the manifestation of a new time because from My womb come the divine archetypes of Creation.

I am the Maternal Heart of God, sent to the world to give a rebirth to those who are dying in life, to resurrect those who surrender to the death of the spirit provoked by this world.

Now I will ask you:

Who will open the doors and windows of the inner dwellings to let My Light enter?

Who will watch for a greater time of Peace, to await with love for the arrival of the Universal King?

Who will endure fear in order to be before that which is Divine and unusual in their lives?

Who will sustain their spirits while seeing the structures of material life crumbling to the ground?

Who will want to be reborn in the Light of the Sun of a new day?

Who will let themselves rise and cross the portals of a new time?

My children, My Words are not only written letters on paper nor are they sound that dissipates into the infinite. My Word has transformed your lives and your hearts and continues performing real miracles in the world. But today I come to tell you that the power of My manifestation is yet to begin because I come at the request of God to dissolve the layers of the illusion of material life and to bring to the light of the eyes of humankind the entire life of the spirit that they were not able to find throughout their existence.

I speak to those who listen to Me and also to those who never came to know Me, for they will search, and find in My Words, written in the past, all the events that they will live in the present.

My Word will echo throughout the corners of this world, from north to south and from east to west, they will recognize Me. They will recognize all the Divine Messengers because within their hearts they will receive the confirmations that will dissolve doubts and that will not let the mind digress because great is the Divine Force that will pulsate within the hearts of humankind.

Today I come as Mother of the Sun because I find in the world abysses and despairs in the hearts of humankind. I see darkness and lack of faith and, at the request of the Lord, I am clothed with His eternal and infinite Light. As a lighthouse, I indicate to the world the path for the most secure harbor of these times and for all times to come: it is the Heart of Christ, living and manifested within everyone.

My children, I want to thank you for listening to My call throughout all the spaces of this world and I ask you to spread My Words and take them to all those whose need them in order to come out of the ignorance in which they live.

The day will come when I will unite My manifestations of the world and multiply the faith of those who trust in My Heart today. They will be one army of Light, walking towards My Kingdom.

I thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Sun
