Apparition of the Virgin Mary in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandú, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

From a place in the Universe I have come to bring you the science of My Peace and so that through it you may be united with Me, by means of the communication with the Mirrors.

Today I bring a message from Cygnus, a place so far from the Earth, but also very close to it, in omnipresence and in unconditionality.

Receive from Cygnus its legacy, its science and its energy.

Embrace its principles in your hearts and watch for the Greater knowledge, because the Earth needs it to be able to persist and continue onward.

So through My Heart, I bring you what is real, eternal and permanent.

To you I reveal a place of contemplation and healing, a sacred enclosure for the Greater Universe, in which many schools have been lived and many experiences have been carried out for the evolution and the awakening of the consciousness.

Today, with My arms stretched out in the form of a cross, I bring you the Love from Cygnus, so that you may remember the origin of an important principle within this Creation and within the life of the material Universe.

From this place receive its attributes and embrace its call in your spirits.

Through its Mirrors, may its principles be reflected and may souls be able to receive its impulses, to be able to vivify the Plan, again and again.

From that place I come with joy and to that place I will return, taking from within you the response to this call of the Greater Universe.

In the stars of Cygnus, healing and the opportunity of redemption are established for all those who have forgotten the opportunity of reconciliation.

Enter into this Universe with gratitude and elevate your consciousnesses to the stars, so that from Cygnus this flame of love may spring that you need in these critical times; a flame that will nourish you and spiritually sustain each one of My children.

In this place find its message of peace, and remember that it is always latent and never changes.

Today its Mirrors emanate what humanity needs, and through its celestial spheres, impulses are sent to the Earth so that, during a time of purification, souls may find the path for their inner support.

From Cygnus will come the encouragement for humanity, the hope that everything will be renewed, the impulse that will rebuild everything so that the experience of forgiveness and of love may be established.

From this constellation comes a powerful energy and its Masters unite in a single purpose to aid the Earth and humanity.

From the Heart of Cygnus emanates the flame of Love, which the whole of humanity needs in order to survive and thus learn to reconcile with one another, so that indifference and ignorance may be dispelled, so that evil and confusion may be dissipated.

From Cygnus will come the inner strength that humanity will need to experience its time of purification and transcendence.

Today I gather all of its Mirrors in My Heart.

And today, My Universal Consciousness mirrors its Energy and the register of love of this Constellation, so that the Suns on Earth may learn to nourish themselves from the Source and from its great lakes of light, in which the synthesis of many experiences is kept in the Universe, a legacy that will repopulate future humanity with new principles and attributes.

Aspire to find this path of return to Cygnus and thus, you will be returning to your origins, where everything once began and emerged, just as God had thought and meditated upon, just as the archangels had established for this Material Universe.

Through Me, reignite your inner Sun and overcome the limits of matter, the obstacles of consciousness, the difficulties of the spirit, because in essence, you all have an origin, which is the origin that Cygnus holds, and there you will find again the meaning of your existence, the reason and the cause of having come to the Earth to experience such a necessary school for your beings, something that will never be forgotten and that will be held in your cosmic memory.

This union with the Love of Cygnus will help you in the elevation of consciousness, and thus you will help to elevate humanity, which is very distracted and lost; a humanity that each day distances itself more from the truth and from the meaning of its purpose.

But if, at least in a very few, a union is established with Infinity, and today especially with the Constellation of Cygnus, something inexplicable will take place for the coming times, and the People of Israel will continue to walk in the desert in search of the Promised Land, which in a short while will be a reality to the eyes of the New Humanity.

The Universe is waiting for the response from humanity and its doors are open between the Universes to lead the spirit of the consciousnesses towards the spheres of the Brotherhood, in which Love and Unity are lived, following one same purpose and one single aim.

Today Cygnus approaches, for those who have been consistent with the Plan, for those who persist and remain on the path of faith and of trust in the Hierarchy, knowing that everything they experience today will have its results in the near future, on the New Earth.

Thus, contemplate within yourselves this inner Universe, which unites with the Higher Universe, and receive from Cygnus the sacred Flame of Love that will always illumine your lives when you invoke it and feel it within yourselves, just like you feel Christ in each moment of surrender and of prayer.

Today Cygnus emits its message of reconciliation to the world.

Today its Mirrors illumine universal spaces so that this local Universe may receive the assistance it needs in these times, and especially so that humanity may be conscious that it is not alone, and that it is now time to know reality and the truth.

In My Heart, I bring what is most sacred that exists in Cygnus, so that you may remember your origin and your commitment to the Creator, and thus the Plan may be reconfirmed on Earth, and thus the Plan may be reconfirmed in all those who say "yes" to an unknown Will.

Through the Great Constellation of Cygnus, may the inner Suns be reignited and may they watch for the Flame of the Divine Purpose, so that more and more help may come to humanity and to the planet.

I thank you for responding to this call for an awareness of the Plan and of its manifestation on Earth.

May the Flame of the inner universe vibrate in your hearts and may it be unified with the current of Love from Cygnus, so that its Mirrors may continue to emit its principles and attributes, so necessary for these times in humanity.

May Love be fulfilled in the hearts that truly accept to live it, in perfect union with the Source of Creation.

I thank you now and always.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
