

Wednesday, May 16 of 2012

In spite of everything My message of Peace and of Salvation must reach the world because humanity will need the Keys of redemption for this time of deep changes in all the hearts.

Still humanity does not know the great sufferings and pains that many of My children live. Because of this today I call you to pray for the miseries that trap the heart of many of My little children, so that My Heart may free them and help them through My Original Immaculate Purity.

Dear children, to accompany the relief of these great pains, the prayers will allow you to keep your eyes open so that wisdom guides you to the place where the needs of the world are.

Today the world needs true prayer from all the devout servers of My Immaculate Heart because in this way My children, God the Father will help all the hearts in the world with His Graces of Peace and Redemption.

I only ask you to keep watch for the presence of humility because it in truth will give you the courage so that each one of My children may answer My emergent and urgent requests.

Know that I only want to see the world reborn before the merciful eyes of God so that He may pardon you and free you of all inner situations.

For this My dearest children, you have My Immaculate Heart donated, opened and surrendered for love of you.

Be sincere among your hearts and may the ray of mercy from My Son purify and free you of all faults, so that together with the Holy Spirit you may be free of yourselves and glorify the Father eternally, with the angels, the archangels and the cherubim.

Let us thank the intercession of the Divine Spirit for this time.

Glory to God in the Heights!

Thank you for answering My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.