DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

I have given you My Life so that you could live through Me.

I have given you My Body so that you could be purified through Me.

I have given you My Blood so that you could be renewed through Me. And today I give you the great universal merit of My Infinite Mercy so that through Me you may trust in that which God sends you for you to mature and grow spiritually.

Nothing else I ask you, only that you follow Me until the end. The soldiers of the new era are still too few to be able to materialize the expected mission of My Return. Entrust to God your beings and tasks so that other Suns on the Earth may be able to wake up as stars of the great brotherhood.

Be simple, loving and humble, it is time to obey the commands that are dictated for your hearts. It is time to give yourself entirely so that redemption may be achieved in all of humanity.

I only ask you to be as crystalline as the Water of Life that tirelessly springs from My Side as energy and repairing light for the entire world. Be seeds that now sprout in Grace and Love inside of My Heart.

I wait for you in prayer, I thank you on this day of Tuesday for having helped Me in the planetary salvation of the essences that are asleep.

Under the Universal Peace of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you now and always for being united to My Heart!

Christ Jesus
