

Sunday, October 11 of 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????

My dear companions in Christ,

While humanity worries about the material growth and about the accumulation of assets and wealth that will rapidly perish before the imperious Light of the Redeemer, I invite you to prepare the return of Christ to the world.

The Lord will come once the hearts of the world have learned to value the true wealth and the true assets, those that you gain when you lose all the assets of the world and when you lose yourselves, surrendering yourselves to Christ.

The Lord will come when humanity understands that the only safe path is the one that leads to Christ. This moment is not distant from your lives, because the events of the world themselves will make collapse all the structures that bring the comfort and the safety for the beings in the material life.

The Lord will come when the consciousnesses finally understand more widely His first coming to the world. They will discover that by seeing the example of those who followed His steps and that, trusting His Spiritual Presence, did not falter with the tremors of the world and did not let their inner fortresses collapse, even with all the attacks of the enemy. On the contrary, the companions of Christ will help to construct the fortress in the interior of the neighbor, even in the midst of great storms, because higher than the wind and the rain will be the power of the love infused in them by Christ.

The Lord will come, finally, when humanity starts to know its own history, the origin of this world and of everything that has happened here, since the first human beings started to develop themselves. In this moment, humanity will seek in Christ the answer for all questions that the soul will make in order that the mind may awaken, and will find in Him the confirmation of all. Because the Lord will come in Glory and, just by seeing Him among the clouds, the unbelievers will repent, the ignorant will understand and the false will fear to see themselves before their own lies, but all will feel the Power of the King and His Majestic Forgiveness.

He will return in order that, in His Presence, humanity may finally understand the Plan of God and, even though many may not manage to fulfill it, they may follow their destinies in the evolution of the Universe, with reverence to the greatness of the Divine Thought and confident in the Will of God. They will walk from the point where they are, in order that, some day, they may be as God thought.

The return of Christ is not a fantasy, it is the Supreme Truth. Those who believe in His coming and persevere, even if against the world and the doubts of their own minds, will sigh relieved when they see Heaven opening itself and, on their knees, they will thank God when they see His prophecy being fulfilled.

Blessed are those who believe in the return of Christ because they will walk behind the Lord, following each one of His steps.

I love you and I leave you My Peace.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph