DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????

The essence of silence is really the act of silencing one's own aspirations. Here lies the key to the ascension of the spirit as well as of matter.

While each one of the different aspects of the being seeks its own satisfaction and achievement, you will never manage to fulfill with perfection the spiritual goal of your souls and spirits.

In these times of purification, be ready to internally and consciously purify the most profound intentions of all the aspects that shape your being.

Build with prayer a fortress that may bear, with love, serenity and patience, finding the one thousand resistances that will emerge from the unconscious. Be ready to come to know the root of all the movements that you are not able to transform, and with great calm, illuminate, with the power of the word that elevates itself to God, these spaces of the consciousness.

Praying is the key to many doors, not only for the salvation of souls but also to prepare you for all that you must live within and outside of yourselves in the very near future.

If you pray from the heart and are disposed to transformation, everything will be possible for you. I do not tell you it is something easy to be lived because the worst battle is the one that you live with yourself, but it will not be impossible, and with a little courage and persistence you will be able to live bigger battles and help others that have not yet begun to traverse the path of the spirit.

While you do not purify your intentions, all the virtues that you live are temporary, such as silence, humility, charity and even fraternity, because, in the depths of all that, there will always be a personal intention that must be purified.

When you discover the roots of your own imperfections, you will always be able to act, feel and breathe for God, and based on His Plan, and it is from there that all that you do will become truthful and the seeds of a New Race, that fully obeys God, will begin to germinate throughout the world.

For this reason, I encourage you not to be alarmed with what you find out about yourselves. On the contrary, give thanks when you discover an imperfect aspect because you will be a step closer to the manifestation of the New Race.

Learn to live your own transformation with much simplicity and without great anguish, like someone who heals a large wound, cleaning it, day by day. And, even if you feel pain or if sometimes the wound emanates a foul scent or becomes inflamed, at some point, it will heal. The more peace and care, the faster the body, strengthened by the power of prayer, will heal the wound itself.

I bless you and lead you to the knowledge of yourselves, and to the inner peacemaking, in face of any circumstance of life.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph, patient and humble servant of God
