DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Guard your being in the silence of My Heart and in this way you will listen with clarity to My Words that will guide you towards the Purpose.

Clothe yourself with My Unfathomable Mercy and permit that My Light reach the deepest corners of your little consciousness. Among My Steps of a Pilgrim are found you and your brothers and sisters. Within My Hands and Prayers are marked each one of the souls that I have been seeking since My Passion and all continue in its course of peace because nothing that is not My Will will be able to modify your lives.

For this in the most difficult moments, is when My Love approaches to My disciples, My infinite Help will always want to demonstrate to you the capacity to deeply love God and your brothers and sisters.

The path to be followed is rough because it is full of challenges and tests to be overcome, but there is nothing stronger than the Divine Love, that which will fill you and that will give you inner strength to carry on walking. After the surrender is found the inner Glory, the universal joy for the soul that is liberated from itself for all of eternity.

Under the Light of God, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Heart!

Christ Jesus
