DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

It is time, child, to put temptations in their place within your consciousness.

This is done by understanding who you are, what you came to do in this world and how your spiritual mission is greater than any aspiration, thought, feeling or harassment that may come from this world.

So that temptations are in their proper place in your life - which are only for you to grow, overcome fears, childishness and retrograde conditions - your consciousness must also be put in its proper place.

Contemplate who you are and the power of union of your spirit with the Spirit of God, and bring an end to that which weakens and distracts you from your path.

Contemplate who you are, beloved child in likeness to God, whose evolution was worth the Blood of God Himself, completely poured out into this world. Could it be that to surrender Himself for you, for your evolution, God knew the mystery of the potential of your life and the life of each being?

Contemplate who you are, child: a vehicle of transformation and renewal of all the Divine Creation.

And it is thus, miserable and imperfect, that the occult chemistry occurs and the miracle manifests. It is thus, full of errors and deviations, that redemption is concretized and renewal is consolidated. The mystery is revealed in your constant overcoming of self.

Place temptations and human desires in an inferior place where they belong.

Place your mental struggle and your apparent defeats in last place where they belong, in the face of the greatness of the Thought of God for you. And just like your Lord in the Garden of Gethsemane, you too step on the head of the serpent that encircles you, wipe the blood that runs down your face and rise up from the weakness of illusions, in which the adversary of God places you constantly.

Within you there is a potential to overcome temptations, humiliations, sorrows, surrenders and challenges.

Within you there is the potential to be scourged, crucified and the potential of dying on the cross.

In you there is the potential to love more than God Himself loved you and to renew His Creation through this Greater Love.

And so, contemplate who you are. Put your consciousness in the right place, yield your most human aspects to God and let the bloody sweat strengthen your spirit to discover that, beyond human weakness, an essence and a Divine Purpose is hidden.

Awaken! Because it is now time, it is now the moment.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
