DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My Sacred Heart is present in all of the souls, only that in some lives My Heart is more felt and loved, mainly by those who pray with faith to My Divine Mercy.

But in those hearts that I visit I find emptiness, pain and disquietude from the lack of prayer and of special attention to My Most Sacred Heart.

I want to conduct all towards My Kingdom where exists the peace and joy of being eternally in God. In this time the souls will define by themselves, if they want to be near Me or if want to be far from Me. God has given them the freedom to decide so that none of them may feel imprisoned in their own life.

Now has come the moment that all of the souls that I summon come to know the transfiguring power of My Divine Mercy. The moment has come to unite oneself to My Source and to not losing the path towards the transformation of the heart and of the inner life.

My Path indicates only one way, that which will lead you towards a spiritual goal: towards the Kingdom of God. Pray for the souls that in these times are imprisoned by themselves by the realities of the world because after all My Light and My Love will prevail in the hearts.

Under the Grace of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for feeling My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus.
