

Saturday, August 3 of 2019

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To define oneself, child, is to reaffirm the Will of God for yourself, every day, to walk towards that Will and no longer feed human deviations that, in spite of being small, distance you from God.

To define oneself is to understand your mission and fulfill it: the mission of loving and of preparing for the Return of your Lord to the world; the mission of serving and of being a precursor for a new life, starting by constantly transforming yourself.

To define oneself is to abandon what separates you from God and from His Truth, to leave behind the behavior of the old human being, your own will, your self-affirmation, in order to decidedly tread the path of evolution in Christ.

To define oneself is to no longer feed the doubts and imaginings that cause you to dream a life of illusions, in which your most human desires are fulfilled, and to allow your heart to be faithful to the Divine Plan, even in thought.

To define oneself is to surrender to God, with all that you are, overcoming the fear of being another, different than what you thought of for yourself.

To define oneself is to climb aboard the ship that takes you to the Infinite, to the Heart of the Father and to not look back, in the certainty that your steps open the way for all beings, for all of life.

The definition occurs every day and is reaffirmed in each instant.

For you, child, there is no other definition but being in God and allowing Him to express within you. That is your mission, your path, your plenitude, your commitment. Let all that prevents you from living the Divine Will be dispelled.

It is time to define your heart in God.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph