

Wednesday, March 25 of 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

My adversary is determined to destroy the plans of peace that I deposit as light in the hearts of beings. But he, who is afraid of the power of Love that conquers all, comes in search of good souls to make them all the dust of his feet.

The beast will never resemble any angel from Heaven. Its posture, dryness and robustness are the ways it manages to deceive souls through lying, competition and disunion.

Its breath is of fire and sulfur, and it was manifested from having fed on the pain and suffering of others. With its claws, it keeps many hearts imprisoned, which are intoxicated by inertia, pleasure and all types and forms of appetites. In addition to these hearts, others are imprisoned innocently because the beast knows that it cannot lose its prisoners.

It is very astute but loses the power of action in all spaces where true unity, strong love and invincible prayer manifest; there it feels weak. The beast finds deep spaces in the abysses of unconsciousness, of falsehood and pride; for this reason, many of those who are in the captivity of this abyss are because they opened the door, from which they spiritually arrived there.

Its ten horns attract all the actions of the world, those which humanity performs unjustly and of which it has never repented before God. Each horn of the beast is the earthly degeneration of a capital principle, which was activated by the sins and uncontrolled debts of imprisoned souls.

Its front legs are robust, they are pillars of false power and the conquering of mankind through modernity. Its back legs are pillars of denial and constant outrages of life on Earth, which are promoted by their allies of the world.

The beast carries a cape on its back that was imposed to create a false reign over the minds of those who believe they are mature and intelligent. The blindness of many beings is caused by the beast, and it manipulates the game of gratification so that it can gain more ground.

Its gaze reflects the desperation and loneliness of all those who were submerged in the abysses of its kingdom, through execution, death and human prisons.

That is the false kingdom and that is the beast that makes humanity succumb, day after day. But it fears the Light of the Kingdom of God and it cannot approach, even if it wanted to, the Woman crowned with the twelve Stars of the tribes supported by the great Moon of inner rebirth and hope.

The Holy Woman of the Sun is now in the desert, leading all those who allow it into underground caves. There, a small kind of paradise was created, and the very golden Mantle of the Holy Woman of Heaven protects and shelters all of that place, which is impenetrable and unknown to the beast. In that small paradise, which exists in the interior of many beings, the Divine Word of prayer is proclaimed, which makes the fortress of that inner place strong and victorious.

Love is experienced in that enclosure and all the creatures are filled by the essence of the Mercy of God. They all know the beast, but none of them fear it, because the strength of all these souls is the unity and love given to the Creator.

The Woman prepares to face Her adversary and the Archangel Gabriel will join the Holy Woman. She will become strong and much more invisible, She will penetrate the dark abysses like a great universal Star. In that hour, the red dragon will have released all its rage, and many will feel it; but the armies of Light will be prepared to respond to the commands of the Holy Woman, to be able to act at the right time.

When the Woman has entered the earthly hell, the Archangels will descend through Her most powerful emanations of Light and Love; and the beast will be removed from the sphere of the Earth. This will be the moment of great liberation and thus the whole world will be illuminated for the following one thousand years.

You will see the solar Light of the King emerge on the horizon and many will be liberated from eternal shipwrecks. A new principle of life will be established and many souls, who remained in faith, will carry the codes of Christic victory. Everything will be banished from the world to make room for the new Kingdom of God.

The elders will have dreams of hope, the youth will see celestial worlds as part of their own homes and the children will teach, through love and happiness, what the universe holds.

The Holy Woman will return to raise the throne of the beloved Son and the angels will bring the offering of the pure of heart in their hands. In the end, humanity will receive its last Grace if souls respond to the call from Heaven in time; and the Sacred Hearts will triumph, at least, in the most simple and true because paradise will be in them.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who instructs you in Celestial Wisdom,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace and Prophet of the Savior