Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 41st Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the city of Monterrey, Mexico, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Today, in spite of a large part of the world being in its spiritual death, I will persevere in you and I will not rest until I achieve what My Father needs for this humanity and for this Universe.

And, in spite of the world not listening, not opening the ears of the heart, I will persevere in you and I will not rest until I achieve what My Father needs.

Yesterday I spoke of a mystery that many did not understand, because everything that is kept in Heaven cannot be experienced by the mind.

Only the heart, your hearts, have the capacity to understand what is not visible to all, that which vibrates and exists throughout the whole Universe.

Humanity cannot restrict itself to material life. In truth, I tell you, that material life is something secondary.

You cannot lose the union with your spirits, because it will be your spirits, your inner worlds, that will understand all that exists in the House of My Father.

Thus, the time has come for humanity, awakened or asleep, to know the reality that is kept in the Universe.

As a spiritual impulse for the redemption of the hearts, of all those who have fallen into their own abysses, I come to remove everyone from their human condition through the impulses of Light that My Heart comes to give you.

My Heart is your true treasure, because within it lies all the virtues and gifts that God constituted since the beginning of Creation.

Long before Adam and Eve, My Heart was already beating throughout the Universe as an immaterial reality, which later came to incarnate among you, to teach you how to love and remove you from error.

In My humility I tell you: you are before a powerful Heart, that not only belongs to Me, but also to My Father, because My Father is in Me, as I Am in My Father, and each one of you can be in God. When you think that this is possible, so it will be.

This is the reason why souls suffer so much: they distance themselves from the Father, they distance themselves from His Kingdom and from all His celestial treasures, which are kept as a sacred memory in His Eternal Heart.

I come to invite you, not only to commune of My Body and My Blood, because I know it is necessary for your lives to experience a physical ritual, but also a profound communion with My Heart, as a part of an inner ceremony for souls.

But today I am inviting you to avail yourselves upon My sacred table of all the gifts that God has been giving to you through spiritual impulses that will only renew, redeem and heal you of everything when you decide to take this step, each time open your consciousnesses more to all that is unknown to your material lives and to your minds.

The Laws that the Celestial Father rules are Higher and Divine Laws that humanity has never managed to follow.

A stream of these Laws, amongst all those that exist, are the Ten Commandments, the basic rules given to humanity in the beginning, through your Patriarch, Moses.

If these rules had been lived and not altered by humanity, the race would be at a different point in its awakening and evolution. Suffering would not exist in humanity.

In what you call "debts" hearts would be free if they had fulfilled the Laws of the Commandments

But as this has not happened, I had to incarnate in this humanity through the Sacred Face of Jesus of Nazareth, to teach you, in the simple things, the great mysteries of the Heart of God through the parables that are kept as keys in the Gospel, which I once preached.

Even so, companions, humanity has not reciprocated in what the Will of God has asked of you. This is also the reason, companions, that throughout time, our Sacred Hearts, of My Mother Mary, Saint Joseph, Christ Himself, have come to the world to be able to instruct and correct you, so that you may follow the path that God has foreseen for you to experience.

And although this has not yet happened, My Sacred Heart brings you all these revelations.

As it was at Mount Shasta, thus I revealed at the Mount of Beatitudes, all the wonders and graces that souls, at that time, could experience.

All these rules are still current, although the majority of souls of the world are separated from this spiritual reality, and are only waiting for you to redeem and to consecrate yourselves to My Heart.

If now, at this time and through this meeting, you are afraid of all that I tell you, of the Revelations of the Consciousness of God, directly from His Source and in all He has created, like in Mount Shasta, how can you, companions, wait for me when I return with My true Face, which I revealed at Mount Tabor, in the Transfiguration?

Would you be ready to recognize My Higher Being?

I do not want you to be frightened, for My Power is not known to the world. It was only ten percent of it that descended when I was on the Cross and expired.

Temples collapsed, more rigid structures fell, the dead rose and spoke and pronounced My Name.

In that hour, everybody feared what had been done to the Son, the First Born, and although all of this happened and reverberated in the memory of a very few over the course of time, I still have to come here because I love you and hope for the best for everyone.

But it is time that you come out of your lethargy to wake up to a new consciousness that My Aspect of Glory brings for the most lost hearts in the world, for those who destroy Creation and the Kingdoms of Nature, only looking for conquest and personal power.

The time has come, companions, for preparing the inner world of humanity to bring many things to an end and to unmask what many still do not see with their own eyes.

The power of divine experience is descending from the Universe to this world, and each time it draws near, the greater the purification of hearts so that you may be free of yourselves, cleansed of everything and ready to receive the Redeemer on His second Return.

I only wish you to not be indifferent, as is the rest of humanity, that only looks to itself rather than to its fellow being, to the one who suffers, to the small animal that is unprotected, to the tree that is damaged, tied up by the chains of humankind.

Now do you understand that My Father has allowed Me to be in everything?

I am not only in humanity, but in the essence of the Kingdoms of Nature, that are the first manifestation of the Creation of the Celestial Father.

If this is becoming corrupted by the hands of humankind from the surface, how will the spiritual life of humanity not become corrupt in and of itself through what it lives and in what it feels, in what it does and practices against the Laws of God?

Forgive me, companions, but I come to tell you the truth so that you set aside the worldly dream that many consciousnesses live, without even perceiving it.

I bring you My Graces, the Graces of My Glory, so that you may be able to awaken more each day and see that the world is suffering the consequences of its own mistakes; it is something that the Father does not want to see anymore in this humanity, on this planet, and in the whole Universe.

I come to reactivate the spirit of the capacity to love in you, because it is Love that will free you. And in this way, your pleas will be heard and at the right moment, you will receive what you so much need.

Be patient hearts in truth and in love, in this way, you will help the souls that despair in the hell of their own error.

I give you the authority to love more each time, without limits, without restrictions, and without boundaries, because it is Love, as you have seen through My Passion, that will reverse everything.

This is a humanity that has achieved few degrees of love, in contrast to other Universes, where love grows day after day.

That is why you are being helped by Consciousnesses that you do not know and that perhaps you will never know, Consciousnesses at the service of Love, just like the holy angels and the holy archangels, that come to meet you each time your Master descends to the Earth; and although you may not see them, they are here to complete wounded hearts and thus open the doors to Redemption.

My hope on this sacred day was to tell you many more things, to expand the Sacred Knowledge that I brought you from Mount Shasta, as well as from other blessed places on Earth, where the keys for a New Humanity are kept.

Only when souls unite in a profound prayer will you access the celestial legacy that is kept in those places for all the hearts on Earth, such as Mount Sinai, Mount Tabor, the Desert of Shambhala, the sacred mountains of the Andes; places that are open so that souls may contemplate everything that God created for each one of His creatures.

Do you now understand, companions, the difference of being able to contemplate and not destroy?

How will you have a new world if you are hurting it?

How will a new consciousness be born?

How will the Laws of healing descend upon humanity if humanity is sick through not living the Law of the Creator?

How will the bridges of brotherhood and fraternity be established if those who pray are so few?

I am inviting those who never dared to penetrate the mystery of My Divine Mercy, so that as I have done with each one of you, I am able to change your hearts into sources of life and of renewal.

And now I prepare for something very important, in which you are participants and can be even more, if you collaborate with Me so that this mission to the United States should take place, irrespective of who will be present there, in that nation, or all that has been done, through the course of time, to other nations of the world.

Once again, under the spirit of the Faith of the Father, I invite you to place yourselves above all these things. In this way, you will be taking a sure step towards My Heart, and not towards another, where everything is empty.

Today a period ends in Mexico.

The Sacred Hearts in Central America and Mexico were able to open the doors for a sacred opportunity that will be seen in the near future.

The seeds that will form the New Earth are sown little by little, so that their fruits are born strong and give more seeds, for the new souls that will find this path towards My Heart.

Let your hearts always seek to be sincere, so that the proclamation held in this song may be heard by all those who have to open their ears to the call of the Creator.

The sincere heart is one that lives in Christ.

The sincere heart is one that seeks Christ and in spite of everything, aspires to be in Him.

The sincere heart gestates within itself the treasures of God, that will be part of the New Humanity.

The sincere heart is not indifferent, but attentive, vigilant, and solicitous to the call it comes upon on its path. Live this way, as a sincere heart, in a greater service.

The sincere heart opens to listen to the corrections of life, and without prejudice, accepts in humility what God sends it.

The sincere heart loves beyond itself and penetrates the dimensions in which the Great Love of God is kept and from where Eternal Life starts.

The sincere heart attends to the needs of the world and does not lose even a second to be able to give of itself for love of the Creator and His First-Born Child.

A sincere heart is free of itself and of all that it has believed about itself, because its own sincerity leads to its freedom from all ties.

A sincere heart is in likeness to the Lord and follows His paths until it is able to find its mission in these times.

The sincere heart pleads to its Creator, having the faith that it will achieve the best for this whole world.

A sincere heart opens the doors to the Kingdom of God with the expression of its inner love for all that was created, and so, it is in eternal communion with all the Universe and with its absolute King, the Redeemer.

The sincere heart transmutes in silence and is not bothered by all it experiences, because if humility and the capacity to love is in it, it will be living Divine Will.

The sincere heart is available to its Master of Love so as to be able to fulfill all He asks of it, deeply trusting that it is true.

The sincere heart dies to itself, so as to be able to have souls be born to the Love of God.

The sincere love is an apostle of the new time, it is the disciple of sacred renunciation and of the acceptance of all that is divine and sublime in the Kingdom of its Father.

The sincere heart serves for the fulfillment of the Plan of God in this humanity and in the whole Universe. In this way, it will concretize its part and will be on the path of Light, being permeated by My Rays, by the Light of My Divine Mercy, until My expected Return is accomplished.

The sincere heart sings to proclaim the coming of Love through the Son of God.

The sincere heart believes in the Return of Christ and waits for each minute to go by so that its Master may come to encounter it.

Be sincere hearts and you will be transformed into something you have never known.

You will come to know inner freedom and in spite of everything, you will be in the Universe of the Love of God.

With these words I bless those who will consecrate themselves in the name of many who will be touched, as in this nation, by My redeeming Light (*).

When all receive the sacrament, uncertain doors are closed and new doors to the light open, in order that hearts find again their filiation and their profound communion with the Celestial Father.

After this consecration, companions, in which your souls and these elements were blessed once again, so that you always seek to live in the Law, My Heart is now ready, just as it was in the flogging square, to enter the United States.

I thank you.

Today I want you to sing a song that will resonate in the people of God, who seek to live in hope and in communion with the Redeemer. As you once said to me: "That which I am, that I give you."

It does not matter how it is, but that it be real. Because if what you give me is real, I will always thank you because you will be sincere hearts that will give the best of themselves, in spite of what happens.

I rise up to the House of My Father, taking your pleas and the prayers of all My children in these two days.

Thus, lifting My Hand towards the Highest, asking for the Grace of God, placing My left Hand on My Heart, I bless you under the power and the authority of the Holy Cross, that redeemed souls, exorcized demons, freed hearts, and instituted the union of Heaven and Earth through the servers that live in goodwill, in hope, and in faith, opening the doors for this next mission to the United States.

I bless you and absolve you, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen. (3 x)

Do not forget that if you are in peace, there am I.

I thank you.
