Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus during the Sacred Week, Day 6, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Prayer: "Celestial Father".

When you see your Master showing the Wounds of His Hands, of His Feet, and of His Side, awakening the Light of God in them, it is a sign that a new mystery is being revealed for the world.

When you see His angels surrounding the Holy Lord, contemplating His divine Sacrifice for all of humanity, it is a sign that something important is about to happen.

When you see behind your Lord, at the heights of the Universe, the presence of the Celestial Father and the Holy Spirit, it is a sign that something important is about to happen.

And this important thing is that which brought the mystery of My Cross, more than two thousand years ago, in which the precious Blood was poured upon the world and the divine Water was shed from the main Wound of your Lord.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Can the consecrated who are present here come closer, please?

The Lord is calling you to re-experience the mystery of His Cross because it is important that your hearts understand that the victory of Christ was not only something human but was also profoundly universal.

And you, who today prepared this sepulcher for Me, know that, from it, I will resurrect humanity, which has been lost from the path of God, because of darkness.

From this sepulcher, the New Christs will be born, and thus consciousnesses will resurrect, so that they can experience the call of God, fulfilling in this way His Divine Will in these times of crisis.

I want now that each of the new holy women, who help me in Divine Mercy, ignite a candle for their Lord and I will thus be able to bring continuity to the universal revelation which I bring you today.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Sol, Janisa, Aylén, and Nadia will come up here and will be beside the sepulcher, at the request of Our Lord.

I call the sheep by their names, so they may spiritually nurture from the subtlest vibrations of their Lord.

At that time, I committed to the holy women, to inwardly reveal to them the mysteries of My Passion and the universal victories of the Cross.

Then, allow My Light to penetrate the depth of your cells so that the Christic cells may be awakened, which will renew you and make you worthy children of God.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Let us sing "We Adore" a few times.

Now, those who can, place your hands in a sign of radiation.

At this moment, Our Lord is showing His five principal Wounds: those of His Hands, of His Feet, and the one on His Side. And the five Wounds shine brighter than the sun, while the angels surround Him.

A greater angel is descending, who gives Our Lord a scroll, which He is now reading.

He says:

This is the revelation about My Divinity; whence I come and where I went, after My Ascension. All of this is possible because of the exposure of My Five principal Wounds.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Now, the angels are praying:

O, Lord Jesus,
resurrect our spiritual life,
redeem our hearts,
elevate our beings before God.

Amen.

---

We can now place our hands together in a sign of prayer, those who can, if not, place your left hand on your heart.

This revelation was written by the angels of the Universe, guided by Saint Gabriel the Archangel.

Three days after My Ascension, when I rose to the House of My Father, at the request of the One, through the intercession of the Archangel Gabriel, His celestial hosts gathered in the Universe, to leave portrayed in this material Universe and all its ethers the revelation on My Divinity and origin, about which today I will tell only a part, because the second part will be known when I return to the world and you see Me coming among the clouds, with the power of the Glory of God and all His angelic armies.

I come from an unknown Source, called the "Primordial Source" by material beings. I was born and emerged as the second aspect of the Holy Trinity. And My Spirit, by the Work and Grace of God, descended to a sun more radiant than this one, which shines upon you every day, from dawn to dusk.

This Sun is the center of many universes, of many constellations, planets, and stars. There, for the first time, the Divinity of the Son of God rested.

Through the hands of the archangels, in a sacred solar Source, more radiant than ruby ??gold, My Consciousness was prepared like a sublime sphere of light, which would penetrate dimensions and universes, until incarnating on Earth and being born in the sacred manger of Bethlehem.

But before reaching the world, the dark ones already knew Who I was. Their plans shook and their kingdoms were defeated, because it was Mercy itself, which in Its Holy Divinity, was being born and emerging from the Heart of the Universe.

Subtle consciousnesses, as well as all heavenly creatures, witnessed the emergence of the Divinity of Christ, which for the first time was materializing in this material Universe, to awaken higher Love in all consciousnesses.

Concentrate. Do not allow the enemy to abound in your minds. Who contemplates My five Wounds while listening to My Words will not lose concentration because they will be within the correct purpose and vibration for receiving what they have to receive and thus, not cause everything to be lost that I bring today for this humanity in darkness.

I am sincere with your hearts, so that you may grow in the truth and not miss the opportunities that I bring you today, with the goal and mission of relieving your own cross through My Christic Divinity, unknown to the world and to all of My Church.

This is how I teach you that Jesus ceased to be a man after having experienced the Cross and having risen, bringing atonement to the world. His Body, Mind, and Soul became divine to give continuity to the Plan of universal salvation.

It was this Essence that arose from that sacred Sun, which crossed universes and planes of consciousness, until arriving on this planet, to bring again the Source of God, which the entire race in that past time had lost.

For this Divinity to be here, God had to sacrifice His second Person. And in a universal humiliation, He had to become small, humble, and simple, among the most simple.

Now do you understand, companions, with Whom you are talking and Who you are listening to, even though it seems the same every day?

My Divinity comes to change the point of your consciousnesses, to liberate you from the daily deception, and so that, in this way, you enter into the true source of your hearts, where I aspire to be all the time.

Today, it is this Essence, this Solar Divinity, that shows Itself to the world a second time, after having incarnated in Bethlehem, to bring Light to the world and Redemption to humanity.

Today, not everyone can see this Divinity, but you can connect with It through your essences, in which the true secrets of the history of your evolution and your awakening are kept. I want to avail myself of those Christic essences, which in these times are tormented by their personality; are flagellated by their thoughts; are crucified by their actions.

Now and always, let your true solar essence be born. This was what I came to kindle two thousand years ago, in all My apostles and the holy women, with the help of My beloved Mother, Who, at the foot of the Cross, committed to being the guardian of the faith of all those essences, until the end of days.

Let your true inner Self be born. It is waiting to be the dwelling place of the Heart of Christ.

Do not waste time. Do not become confused. No longer judge. Be one in Me, and I will be able to be One with you, in sublime brotherhood, until the end of time.

God cries at this time, in His profound Silence, by seeing so many lost solar essences, that seek love in the outer; that satisfy their needs in the superficiality of things; that do not find meaning, nor a way out, nor any healing, for their consciousnesses.

What are you waiting for, My soldiers?

This is My Christic Divinity, which was among you for thirty-three years and returned to the House of His Father to finish concretizing the Works of the Most Holy Trinity, after the triumph of My Heart on the Cross.

Today I bring you this Communion with My Divinity because a time will come when you will only be able to be in perpetual communion with My eternal Divinity. That will be the refuge, not only for your souls but also for your consciousnesses and your bodies. That divine refuge that I offer to you today is a source of reparation and prodigies in the consciousnesses that surrender and divest themselves, so that the Supreme King may dwell in them.

Contemplate My Five Wounds. Avail yourselves of the Spring of My Heart, so that everything may resurrect, as it was at the beginning of this Creation.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

For the Blessed Wound that we marked in the Side of Our Lord Jesus, from where sprang the Unfathomable Source of Mercy
for the whole world,
Adonai, Eternal Father,
reconcile us with Your Glorious Kingdom.

Amen.

---

Accept in silence the sufferings that I impart to you today, and do it for Me, for the salvation of humanity and the Kingdoms of Nature.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

The crosses.

Today, My Cross is multiplied in many consciousnesses of the planet, which decide to alleviate My agonizing Heart, so that, in this way, the whole planet may be restored; so that the planet may be restored in this acute hour of the Earth. The Cross represents an inner liberation from all the atavisms of human beings, of all those who accept to live this surrender, for the emergence of a New Humanity.

Today also leave, resting upon My Breast, your spiritual cross, so that it may be relieved by the Love of you Lord.

How many crosses the world experiences! How many sufferings innocent souls experience! How many wars are generated! How many conflicts are carried out! How much love is lacking in hardened hearts, which do not accept My Divine Mercy!

Why have I asked you to place the crosses on this symbolic sepulcher? Because these crosses, which your Lord also carries, must be lovingly distributed among His disciples and followers.

Today, this is My invitation to you: step out of yourselves, so that I may be in you, sharing the crosses of humanity.

How many races and peoples experience their cross! How many cultures and tribes are decimated! How many children are exploited! How many little ones are still aborted! How many parents are lonely, without having a child in their arms, while many are removed from the wombs of their mothers! How many who are ill are in agony on this Good Friday!

Thus, I say to My son Michael that I am with him, carrying his cross until My Love wins.

How many are dying in the streets of this world! How many elders are hurt! How much the Mineral Kingdom suffers, in its most perpetual silence! How many precious stones are removed from the mountains that are exploited! How many plants are cut down and nobody perceives it! How many animals are outraged, both on land and in the oceans! How many of them are eaten, and there is no compassion for the suffering of these fellow beings! How many devas are removed from the great forests of the world! How much evil has been done to Creation, after so much Love was expressed by the Father! And not even after His Son incarnated and died on the Cross, have the evils in the world ended.

Do you understand now why so many solar essences are lost?

The time has come for a great fraternity, for unity among hearts, cultures, and peoples. The simple will re-erect the new humanity after so many catastrophes have been experienced.

I give you the essence of My Mercy, to ease these heavy crosses of the world.

I leave you this reflection so that you may pray for it and so that the doors to My Divine Mercy may open for humanity even more.

So be it.

While I rise to the Universe, for the sake of My sorrowful Passion, offer your voices to God, invoking Adonai, His Holy Spirit, and His Mercy.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sing with all the strength of your hearts and souls, so that the Earth may be repopulated with new Christic codes.

So be it.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Thank you, Lord, for all that You give us!

In this meeting, we honor You, Lord.
