SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN MONTSERRAT, BARCELONA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS FOR THE 115TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Behold the planet at My Feet, being radiated by the Rays of My Merciful Heart.

Behold the souls on this blue planet, within the school of redemption and forgiveness.

I Am a part of this sacred planet. I Am a part of humanity because I was born among you, lived among you, preached to you, and suffered for you, for one cause, because of God's Love.

This is why, in this new Marathon of Divine Mercy, I want you to contemplate, before yourselves, the planet and all its suffering, so that the Rays of My Unfathomable and Divine Mercy, which flow out from My Heart, may embrace the world and souls even more, especially those condemned to the fire of hell.

This is why I speak to you today, and I present Myself to all My companions, all My disciples, from the Sacred Montserrat, where the Voice of God echoes through the inner planes of those who have their hearts open to hear and recognize the Presence of the Lord.

Today I Am here with you once again for the entire planet. For its oceans and Kingdoms, for its forests, mountain ranges and mounts, for all life and all Creation, gravely outraged in this time by the hand of humankind, by the unconsciousness of those who ambition power.

But behold My Unfathomable Heart, which does not cease to pour out its Graces upon the world and upon the whole universe.

Behold the silent Heart of Christ, which suffers the martyrdom and sins of humanity. The Heart of Christ, which once again offers itself for souls; the Heart that opens like a great door so that all, without exception, may cross it.

My Rays, the Rays of My Heart, need to reach the planet even more, all the terrestrial sphere. Grave are the errors committed in these times, and you already know it. But the change of consciousness is still not happening in the majority but only in the minority.

It is necessary to truly continue praying and commit yourselves with the strength and power of prayer because while this does not happen, greater will be the outrages of the world, greater will be the weight of the Law and its consequences.

This is the moment for you to be radiated by the Light of My Heart, just as I have done many times, out of Love and Mercy.

Do not allow the doors of My Grace to close. Open these doors completely through your consecration and service, not only to the Human Kingdom but also to all the Kingdoms of Nature so that the pain of the most inoffensive Kingdoms of this world may be appeased and relieved, even if through a small or anonymous act. This in itself will greatly relieve the suffering of the world and of the Kingdoms.

So that a New Humanity may be born, so that a new planet may emerge, it is necessary for you to invoke the Law of Healing through prayer, because many wounds must still be healed, many painful events must be dissolved so that the Love of God may triumph in all His Creatures.

In this Marathon, and before the important month of August, when the Spiritual Hierarchy will make new decisions for this Human Project, behold My Merciful Heart, pouring out Blood and Water, through Its Rays, upon this wounded and outraged planet.

May you rise from the abysses.

May the people of Israel rise from the abysses, incessant wayfarers of the desert in search of the Promised Land, which is no longer just a promise but rather a reality.

This is the Earth. This is the planet promised by God for all His Children and Creatures. Value, revere and respect its natural and spiritual riches, for many are the treasures that the inner worlds hold. These are the keys of redemption for all of humanity. They are the new attributes that will emerge from the Inner Kingdoms toward the surface in order to rebuild this whole planet in My Return.

May the old people of Israel come to Me and walk confidently, without losing hope or faith. Even if you see incredible or inexplicable things in this world, do not stop.

May the light of prayer guide your steps and may this pathway, which the light of prayer manifests to you, lead you until you find the Purpose in the innermost depths of your beings. There, you will be in communion with Me and the Father, because in the innermost depths lies the Temple of God, His Home, through the essences of His Children throughout life.

May no one else have the intention of aborting life.

May no one else have the intention of raising a weapon to wound or hurt.

May bombs and weapons no longer be heard among brothers and sisters of the same people or the same race, because I will come to deter all these things, just as I have done in the past.

My signs will not be symbolic but rather forceful. I will mark a line on the ground between the past and the future, between the old time and the New Time, and everything will start from scratch. Therefore, keep walking through My Light in these crucial times of challenges and new experiences.

Although My time with you is now coming to an end, may My Words resound forever so that you may recognize the Voice of the Return of the Lord, which will be heard in the entire universe, just as a storm is heard in the sky.

Thus I prepare you for the last and great time, and through the Presence of My Father, I renew you, and once again give and deliver My Peace to you.

May this Marathon not be lived with a feeling of obligation but rather of spiritual responsibility of the one who is awake and aware that we are in the last hour and in the end time, and that a bead of prayer could deter a war and the destruction of entire peoples, whole lives.

May all those who have consecrated themselves to Me be responsible. You must represent Me in the end of these times, just as My apostles of the past represented Me when I was no longer physically with them.

But the Spirit of God will never be lacking. It will come just as in the Pentecost, like a blazing flame upon your heads, to give you the Discernment and the Wisdom of God so that you may help other souls and may give of yourselves for them.

Thus, the great change will be a reality rather than a promise. Thus, everything will be transfigured, just as the Lord was transfigured on Mount Tabor.

Be brave and persist. My Heart is close to the consistent.

I thank you for listening to Me and for recognizing the Lord in the most intimate core of your hearts, where lies divine life for all souls.

I bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
