APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The world lives constant threats. This is the cause of so much need for prayer. This is the purpose that you must achieve: converting your lives into a constant mirror of prayer, so that Higher Laws do not distance themselves from the planet, and contrary forces do not make My Project succumb.

This is why I hide in what is anonymous and silent, My Presence does not seek to stand out in this humanity, because remember that I incarnated among you to suffer for you and die on the Cross.

Being humiliated and denied by those closest to Me, My Divine Mercy placated injustice and at that moment deterred the great punishment of the world. For this reason, I came to live among you and I still wish to live in you. It is the only way My Higher Law can be reconstructed on the planet.

Because despite all the testimonials and experiences lived through Me, even in the great miracle of the Eucharist, humanity has not yet understood the meaning of My Presence in the world.

This is why, since the beginning of My public life, I taught you parables so that, in the simplest and most commonplace examples, each one of the members of this humanity might learn to live in the Law.

What does it mean for you to live in the Law? Have you ever wondered?

Do not see the Laws as something far away from you, but rather see the Laws as an opportunity to be in communion with God.

The cause for the current suffering in the world is the distancing from the Law due to the blind greed of some hearts, which want and try to conquer the world. However, no one can go beyond God, not even His Most Beloved and Serving Son, even God having given Me all His authority to govern the universe.

This is not knowing God, being far from His Law. Because from the beginning, the Eternal Father taught the Commandments to His sacred people, so that all would avoid suffering and having to endure.

Although suffering in the world is optional, and a great part of this suffering is induced, you must not lose hope or lose the faith of finding again the path toward the Divine Plan.

Because living the Sacred Plan of God in these times means to try to live it every day, even hundreds of times. But the Universe has granted to you the school of learning experiences, so that you may avoid falling in errors again.

For this reason, today I expand again the importance of this Lent. I consider this Lent culminating and unique, even if more Lents will be lived afterwards.

Why?

Because we are in a definitive time. Humanity, in its essence, has not decided what its next future will be, although many on this surface daily believe they have evolved through the so-called intelligences, which are far from God, not only from His Will, but also from His Heart.

Do not become involved with that which is unreal, seek the reality that exists within you and is untouchable. This inner reality, called essence by everyone, is the one you must take care of, first of all from yourselves, and cultivate in this essence, day by day, the Attributes of the Creator, those I have taught you through the parables, examples of Pity, Mercy and Compassion.

I know that the world will still not understand what Divine Justice is, but it seems that the world seeks it day by day in an uncontrolled way.

Do you now understand the importance of My having merciful hearts in the world?

If these hearts do not abound in the world, what will become of this planet in the next cycle?

For this reason, I continue to count the minutes for My Return to the world, although in the true spiritual time My approximation to all of humanity and the planet has already been taking place. Because I will descend from what is higher to what is lower, just as Christ, your Master and Lord, descended in soul to the hells for three days.

Do you believe that I would not be able to do it again for the whole world?

I need you to have this very much in mind, as a Christic preparatory reflection, so that you may enter the next Sacred Week more aware and more receptive; infinitely more self-given, after all the spiritual treasures you have received.

This is why I remind you again, because you have forgotten, of the great door that I Am opening on a spiritual level for the New Christs, called threshold of the truth and fidelity, of sacred loyalty to God's Purpose.

Because through your hearts and souls, companions, My Graces still wait to be multiplied for the souls that suffer, especially those that are condemned to the fire of hell, those souls that are under impunity day by day.

However, just as your Master and Lord, by climbing to Jerusalem and before entering the Temple of the Father, expelled the traders, in the same way the Son of the Most High, in the Glory of the Father, will expel the energies that have caused the whole world to succumb. Therefore, believe in this power of renewal, which I will bring to the world.

Therefore, your hearts must be clean and purified day by day, so that My spiritual principles and treasures may have a favorite place in you forever.

Because just as it is written and as it was written, I will come to ask you all that I spiritually gave you. And God, on the day of the Final Judgment, will not measure humanity with His cane because He does not have one, but rather He will judge hearts through their works, their actions and all their acts.

Therefore, you must take care of your mouths, of what you emanate and say. You must not be part of the negative vibration of the world, you are now ready to live another learning experience and another school. Many of you should already be the Christs of the New Time. What are you waiting for?

Meanwhile, the Lord of the Universe, through His Spiritual Government, works in this world in an almost imperceptible way. Because it is in silence, rather than in exhibition, it is in anonymity, rather than in attempting to stand out, that Christ carries out His redeeming Work for souls. And even more, I can be present in eternal and perpetual communion in those that put God first.

Therefore, do not allow yourselves to be intimidated or persecuted. Do not allow yourselves to be influenced in these critical times. Many are the pieces of information that are spoken about and very little is the truth that is exposed to the world.

Learn to look at these final events through the Eyes of God. Of a God that does not condemn, but rather attracts and welcomes. A God that does not judge, but rather loves and heals. A Heart that receives and listens to the suffering of its neighbor.

This is how the heart of each one must be. In this way, you will learn to love more and more each day, and that which is apparently difficult in you will no longer be, because your souls, minds and hearts will be in your fellow beings, in those who truly need to feel understood and accepted. And this begins first in all Christian communities like this one, in daily life, in the gesture of closeness rather than indifference, in the act of mercy, rather than of humiliation.

It is time for you to be different, and this will not take place overnight, it will rather happen through the true conviction of living for Me and to Me; through the conviction that in the small steps, in the small transcendence and in the deep renunciations lies your liberation, although this may seem impossible to you now.

In the next Sacred Week I need you in a spirit of cooperation and collaboration, even in the aspects of your daily life. Because you know that you cannot hide from Me, I put before you, that which you must take on day by day, I show you, on your paths, all that you must serve for a greater goal, for the triumph of My Love in the world and in humanity.

All these recent years of meetings with Me have been preparatory. Now is the time to live what I ask of you, it is time to imitate Me, and you are now grown up enough to realize when you do not imitate Me.

Therefore, take care of the hearts of those that you sometimes hurt, because I assure you that you do not know who your neighbor is. Do you now understand what the mystery is?

God's power and greatness lie in what is smallest, in what is simple and humble. God could never have come to the world surrounded by riches, by attempts to stand out or by authority.

I invite you to work, during this Lent, upon the authority that you exert over others, upon the value judgments. I do not want to see this in you anymore. However, despite everything, I will not fail to love you or appreciate you, because God is infinitely Merciful.

Do not waste time, do not miss the opportunities of this sacred spiritual condition, which I Am creating daily this Lent, during the next forty days.

Have you ever wondered what the reason is why I Am coming now?

Do not fall asleep. Awaken to the signs that I Am giving, because all will be consummated, just as it was on the Cross. And when all is consummated, it will be too late.

Experience this inner consummation which I present to you through My little Messages and, above all, through the revelation of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. The Graces in the Heavens are abundant.

May your hearts open in this Lent. This is what I hope from you and from the world. Because just as I worked and acted through My apostles, I wish to work and act through your hearts. I know that many already do it. I Am not denying it, I just need you to understand what I Am saying, beyond the mind, and even beyond My Words, because in My Words lie the keys for your conversion, lie the path of eternal union with God.

I thank all those who are daring to live this Lent and that wake up every day in the morning and know that I Am returning daily, at some place of their homes, in some area of this Community.

In Divinity and Spirit, the Lord of Israel, your Master, runs, with His Spirit, with the Breath of God, all the spaces that offer to serve Him out of love.

And in this way, the Lord visits the hearts that open to be transformed in this Lent, so that this cruel world may be transformed, and souls, in the whole world, may no longer suffer. Because My Heart suffers when souls suffer.

Thus, in silence and in what is invisible, I suffer in many hearts that many times have passed before you. And I have also suffered many times in the hearts that are beside you. Did you know this?

Celebrate this Holy Eucharist so that the most suffering, innocent and lost souls may receive the Grace of the Love and Light of the Redeemer through this preparatory Lent. The path of the brave who dare to cross their own deserts, without feeling they are victims and without feeling pessimistic, but rather feeling, through the strength of Christ, like an apostle that faces their own tribulation, learning to transcend themselves every day and remembering My great aspiration.

I give you My Peace, so that My Peace may be in the world, and I bless you so that this Lent may make you grow in Love and charity.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
