

Monday, March 4 of 2024

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS AT THE LIGHT-NUCLEUS IMMACULATE HOUSE OF THE RELIEF OF SUFFERING, SÃO CARLOS, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE FIRST DAY OF THE 123TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today, I elevate your consciousnesses to the heart of the universe, so that, just like the Hierarchies, you may contemplate the existence of My Spiritual Government. This is what humanity needs to recover peace and inner unity among creatures.

The Spiritual Government of Christ is the authentic expression of the Law. The Law leads the manifestation. Just as it was at the beginning, the Law of the universe continues to act, although at this moment the planet and humanity are not fulfilling the Law.

Re-establishing the Law of the universe in this world will be one of the great tasks of the Master. Because it will be from this operation and movement that, from the spiritual plane to the material plane, the Law will re-establish unity of the human consciousness with the Source and consequently, it will re-establish unity and communion with all the Laws of the universe.

I know, companions, that while this world lives duality, attaining union with the Law of the universe will be a great effort, because you will have to climb several steps in evolution until you are united, in your inner consciousnesses, with the Higher Law.

If the world, from the beginning, had understood the Laws of the Commandments revealed to Moses on Mount Sinai, I assure you that today there would be no need for purification, no inner or external purification, because the Laws of the universe help the human consciousness to transcend itself, the Laws of the universe help the human being to live fidelity to God and, at the same time, the Laws of the universe help the transparency of the human consciousness itself.

But these attributes in this end time, the attributes that are provided by the Laws of the universe and, in this case, through the Commandments themselves, have been attributes discarded by the greater part of the human consciousness.

In this deep reflection and meditation which I bring to you, see in this present time, the result of the decisions that were made by humanity and, even more, see the result of the individual decisions that each being has made in this time. And in this way, you will understand and know who is and who isn't in the Law. But I do not come, at this moment, to bring you something severe or rigid, because the very Laws that governed the people of Israel in those times, were lived in a rigid and very severe way.

This, companions, is not God. Through His Laws, He wants you to live His Mercy. Through His Laws, He wants you to live a communion with the Divine Plan and that, through each cycle and each time that presents itself to you, through the different moments of life, you may contemplate and observe how you can gradually concretize this Divine Plan on Earth.

Because this Divine Will, which God presents to you, is not something personal or a group thing, it is a Divine Will expressed by the unity of beings and consciousnesses. It is a Will that grants, through the Laws, the possibility for souls to live their spiritual commitment without having great delays in taking the steps the universe needs you to take, so that, at each stage, through the souls that offer themselves as Instruments of God, the cycles of the manifestation of the Plan may be fulfilled.

This Work, conceived for Christ for so many years, has lived a special guidance to concretize the Plan of manifestation. You can see that with your own eyes, as this has happened even on the material plane.

However, if from the beginning, through the founder of this Work, there had not existed this fidelity and transparency toward the Law, in a simple yet profound way, in a self-given and surrendered way, just as its founder surrendered his life to the Plan, I assure you, companions, that there would not be a single brick manifested here.

Do you understand what it means to live communion with the Higher Laws?

This is fundamental and essential for this time. Although you do not understand the depth that the Laws have, although many in this time do not know the basic Laws of the universe, Our Words and Our Messages, the Message of the Spiritual Hierarchy itself, demonstrate to you the path to live in the Law.

And it is not through complex or difficult actions, it is not through very transcended or unattainable actions, it is not through an absolutely transformed, though imperfect life. Because you will be able to live the Law through the simplicity of the heart, through not allowing yourselves every day to stop being true, first to yourselves, and then to your brothers and sisters.

This will allow you to live in the Law day by day, and by being true and authentic to yourselves, you will be able to take the first steps of transparency so that you may then live the steps of consecration, which is gradual and infinite.

Because I want you to know, My friends, that consecration is granted by living and experiencing the Law and that after this life on the surface of the Earth, you will continue to live the infinite path of consecration until your souls, and above all your essences, merge with the Source, being nothing so as to be in the All. And from this absolute nothingness, when your experiences will merge with the Source, a new experience and a new learning will emerge, which will take place on other planes of consciousness, in other dimensions and in other spheres.

And thus, your essences will continue to evolve with all that you have learned on Earth, after you have lived your own spiritual judgment before the Lords of the Law, who rule this material universe. That spiritual judgment is not about condemnation or punishment, it is rather a profound synthesis in the consciousness, in the soul and in the spirit.

And at that hour, when you have evolved through the Law, after you have passed to the next world, you will become aware of all that you have received and lived here, even what is apparently difficult and painful, even all that which weighs on your back as a heavy cross. Because if the Son of the Father lived it in His own flesh, what is the reason that you cannot live it?

Evolution cannot be compared to a painful or unattainable path. Evolution is sustained through degrees of love. And it is in these degrees of Love, in the daily routine of your lives and all your experiences, that you will be able to understand the manifestation of the Law and its concretion on the three planes of consciousness: spiritual, mental and material.

Thus, I need to prepare what is deepest in you, what you know as the essence of life, for what will come in the next time, in the preparatory time for the Return of Christ.

This is the reason for My Presence here, not only to bless again My little Holy Land, but also so that, within yourselves and through yourselves, you may yield the fruits that God needs at His Altars, to be able to reach the time of redemption.

Within what is most intimate in your hearts, hold each treasure that I give you. In the innermost depth of your essences, hold each impulse that I give you, and allow these seeds of Light, which I give you today, to germinate in the coming times, and to someday be converted into the spiritual fruits that may serve as help and collaboration for the rescue of the planet and humanity, to prepare the Return of Christ.

Do not fail to be attentive to all that I have told you. You now know that this is My last time with you, because the time of the final decision will come for each one of you.

I want you to know, companions, that each step in life must be a final decision that will place you near or far from God, for the decision depends on each one of you, the decision that you may be transformed, the decision that you may be redeemed, the decision that you may be transfigured, the decision that you may be converted, the decision that you may be consecrated, the decision that your lives may be totally different forever.

Thus, I will be able to deposit My legacy in brave hearts, and I will pour out My Graces upon the hearts that supplicate, because the abundance of My Spirit is inexhaustible, and I want and wish that your spirits may merge with My Spirit, to be united to My Christic Love.

May the Lord, God of the Universe, renew the spiritual foundations of this Work and of all works of charity in the world, so that the Spirit of Peace may reflect itself upon the Earth, and so that, through all the self-given and surrendered servers in the whole world, the human fraternal attitude and the common good may be re-established in the whole world.

I leave you My Peace, so that you may be My Peace in these times of great challenges.

Remember that I Am present in all Tabernacles of the Earth. And whenever you may be before a Tabernacle, adore the Eucharistic Jesus, so that souls no longer suffer, and that the whole world may recover justice and hope.

I thank you for being with Me once again.

Let us continue forward in Holy Communion.

May God protect and bless you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.