

Saturday, August 3 of 2024

SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN ALJUSTREL, FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 128TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Although darkness embraces a great part of the planet, I Am now returning.

Although the tribulations afflict and disturb hearts, I Am now returning.

Although attempts are made to knock down My companions, I Am now returning.

Although the dark night may seem too long, I Am now returning.

Although division is seen in families, I Am now returning.

Although many already live their spiritual desert, I Am now returning; for there is nothing that can deter the Coming of the Lord.

Behold your Master and Friend. Behold the Lord of Peace and Mercy who has the Grace, once again, to gather you in this garden in Aljustrel. A place that is a favorite for Me and for My Most Holy Mother, where the souls that for such a long time have been seeking peace, can find it here time and again.

Just as I was so close to My apostles, today I Am close to you to give you, once again, My Life, the strength of My Spirit, the Love of My Heart, which comes to place meekness and serenity where they are most needed.

Now accompany the path that the Master is showing you. This is the path of the next steps in this month of August. Because I expect, in this culminating time, that My companions will finish preparing for the Coming of the Redeemer.

While the world agonizes, I Am now returning.

While innocent people die, I Am now returning.

While impunity is news in all parts of the world, I Am now returning.

The Lord will re-appear as a Humble Servant, just as He appeared on the shores of the Sea of Galilee to call the disciples by their names, just as I call you today, to follow Me and serve the Lord.

Just as the holy women did in that time, today My holy women of the end of times are called to accompany the Lord in this agony of the planet, so that each act, each gesture and each prayer may be an offering of reparation and healing of humanity, mainly of those who today are still prisoners of their own lives.

Thus, I come to dissolve, with My own Hands, the shackles of perdition. I come to remove from the hells of the planet, the many who are submerged in them, because I Am now returning. And just as it was written by Our God, it will be fulfilled by the intercession of the holy prophets and patriarchs.

Behold, once more before you, the Lord of Israel, who not only sees blood being shed in His holy land, but also sees slavery in many parts of the world, the impunity and agony that many consciousnesses now live for being imprisoned through the jails of society; however, I come to liberate you from the spiritual and material prisons.

There is no darkness that can oppose My Love, there is no fear that can oppose My Light, there is no suffering that cannot be dissolved by My Mercy. Because I gave you My Life on the Cross, just as today I give you My Life eternally so that you may have life in abundance through Me.

Companions, this is the time of the apostolate, just as it has been announced many times. It is time for each one to assume their part with Me, just as the apostles and the holy women did in that time.

The history that has already been written by the Hand of God, is being fulfilled again. The moment is different, but the circumstances are the same, because the Omnipresence of the Lord is uninterrupted and irrefutable, because it is an Eternal and inexhaustible Presence that, time and again, and from cycle to cycle, comes to give His Life, His Love and His Mercy for those who say 'yes' and respond to Him.

With a gaze of hope, see internally, before you and on your spiritual path, the Purpose being fulfilled, that Purpose that was thought from the origin of your existence in the ponds of the Love of God in the Universe.

Now, dare to walk on your own feet; and you and your brothers and sisters, do not fear. I Am the Lord of the next goal, the Lord of the Burning Aspiration of God for each one of the souls, for each one of the hearts.

Thus, tonight, when you receive Me and when you prepare for the last Marathon of Mercy with the Redeemer, receive again My Spiritual Anointment through the powerful Sign of the Cross, which liberates souls, dissolves suffering, liberates from prisons, heals hearts, makes life and the consciousness of each being be reborn.

Receive My powerful Sign of the Cross, the one upon which I was raised on the top of Mount Calvary as the Tree of Life, which surrendered Its own Blood and Its own Water at each moment of the Calvary, for the remission of all sins, for the liberation of humanity.

I want you to quench My thirst.

The Lord is thirsty for all those who suffer in this world, mainly those who are forgotten and discarded, those who are imprisoned in jails.

The Lord is thirsty for the women who sell their bodies in the streets, for the mothers who abort their children in the clinics, transgressing the law of life and maternal love.

I Am thirsty for those who are lost in wars, for the soldiers that fight, deceived to conquer an illusion that does not exist and which is unreal.

The Lord is thirsty for those who are sick in their homes and hospitals, for those who are moribund.

The Lord is thirsty for the forgotten elderly, for the disabled who are offended and kept at a distance.

The Lord is thirsty for the little orphaned children, for those who have lost their families, for those who fight and seek an opportunity in other nations of the world, crossing deserts, seas and oceans, and many of them losing their lives.

Who will quench this thirst of the Lord through their good acts of mercy, through works of charity and forgiveness?

Who will repent for those who do not repent?

Who will confess for those who do not confess but lie?

Who will be capable of protecting My Work from themselves, through the truth, transparency and justice?

The Lord of the Universe sees everything, nothing is hidden to God through His Most Beloved Son.

For this reason, you are in time to mend your acts, for those who do not mend them; you are in time to mend your thoughts, for those who do not mend them; you are in time to mend your feelings and all your intentions, for those who do not mend them; because My burning and deep desire is that all may be in the Law again.

For this reason, I remind you that I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life, and that no one comes to the Father if not through Me. This will always be so, because it is a Divine Law.

For this reason, in this month of August, may your hearts and lives be mended before God so that humanity may be repaired, healed and redeemed some day.

Happy are those who are true to themselves and to their brothers and sisters, because they will never lack spiritual happiness.

Happy are those who recognize their own faults and do not hide them, because they will be called children of the Redeemer.

Happy are those who try every day, although they fall and get up again, because they will be called servants of the Lord.

Happy are those who, in this hour of the recollection of Christ and of all Hierarchies, recognize the Graces and spiritual treasures they have received throughout the times and place them into practice through the example of a dignified life, because they will be called collaborators of the Plan.

Happy are those who draw near the Sacrament of Confession and do not resist, because they will be blessed by My Spirit and there will be no stain nor sin that may afflict them or disturb them, because by the universal priestly authority their sins and faults will be forgiven, and they will be called blessed of the Lord.

May this Marathon of Mercy not be just one more Marathon of prayer, but rather that each one of you may place, upon your table, just as the Hierarchy does, the difficult and grave situations of the planet so that they may be illuminated and filled by the light of prayer, and in this way also your lives and the lives of your families may be filled by the light of prayer.

I will be attentive once again to the voice of your supplications, because the world needs them and everyone needs them.

Feel My spiritual embrace. Feel the beating of My Heart, the Presence of My Soul and Divinity, and the power of the Love of My Spirit.

In profoundness, I thank you; receive My Peace, the Peace of the Kingdom of the Heavens and of the angels present here in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.