Do not be afraid. I, Who am here, Am your Mother, the Mother of humanity and of all the peoples of the Earth.

I am the Mother and Lady of the Sacred Sword, the one who with the power of prayer struggles to remove evil on the surface of this planet.

I am the Mother of all the shields and with them I protect My children so that they may soon enter the Kingdom of God.

I am the Mother of the Sovereign Scepter of God and with It cause the Will of the Most High to descend to Earth, so that souls may live the Sacred Will of God.

I am the Mother of the Divine Crown of Light and with it I illuminate the paths of My children, I draw lost spirits to My Heart, I redeem fallen consciousnesses so that they reach redemption and peace.

I am the Immaculate Heart of Peace and through My Heart I bring the Mercy of God to the world, which in souls will reanimate their spiritual path and their inner transformation for these critical times.

With the sweetness of your hearts, today I can be here and bring more Graces to the world, not only for your lives, but also for the planet, which suffers in various parts of the world without anyone knowing.

I come here to bring you the design of God, which you had never known before, as well as His Sacred Will, which you must live in these times to please the Heart of God and to carry out His Project on this Earth; a Redeeming and Liberating Project that will put an end to human captivity and the spiritual loss of many souls.

The doors to the Mercy of My Son are still open, thus, today I bring in My Hands the Celestial Holy of Holies that contains the Sacred Eucharistic Body of Christ, so that it may be venerated in the world, much more than it has been venerated and worshiped until now; so that it may be considered the intermediary between God and humankind, as the last lifeline for those who want to save themselves, and thus enter paradise.

Through My Words, I come to bring you the loving example of the life of Christ, what He testified to for you while He was here, on Earth, close to this humanity and this people, which was being lost from the Purpose of God and that by His Presence and His Sacrifice, by His Painful Passion and by His Blood, was able to save the world in those times. Now that He ascended to the Heavens, you must fulfill your promise. First you have to testify to Christ in your hearts, so that He may be testified to by you to the world.

It is necessary, dear children, to live a correct and worthy life in the Lord, to have healthy and correct examples to experience a true spirituality.

It is necessary, dear children, to withdraw from what is superfluous, from all that pulls your attention away from the Heart of My Son, from true filiation with God and with His Kingdom.

It is necessary, dear children, to live a life of peacefulness, first within your families and loved ones, so that then this peace may be radiated to the world, to the hearts that are most in need of the Mercy of God.

Do not look for Jesus only in the Eucharist, but also in daily confession, in fasting, in prayer, and above all, in the service of the poorest of the poor, because if you do not serve them at this time, who will attend to them and help them get out of marginalization and suffering?

With this same Grace that I bring to your hearts today, I fervently wish, dear children, that Ecuador be a people of high service, that through service can retransmit its sacred roots of fraternity and love among peoples.

The first step for you, dear children, will be the school of prayer.

The second step will be the school of service.

The third step, dear children, will be your surrender and your consecration to God, so that many more souls may consecrate themselves to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to My Immaculate Heart.

To be able today to say all these simple but true things, I must remove evil from the surface of this planet with the compelling and loving help of the Angels of God, under the Celestial Command of the Archangel Saint Michael.

Believe that the end of captivity is possible, dear children. Each one of you, to some degree, has experienced a spiritual or material captivity. As Mother of Mercy, as the Mother of Grace and Light, I come to put an end to these things, through your practice of daily prayer and your daily consecration to My Immaculate Heart.

I would like you to open the doors of your homes to establish new groups of prayer, because in the times that will come, dear children, the only refuge and salvation will be your homes, which must become true temples of prayer, so that God may be present in every moment and in the face of all events that will come unexpectedly into the world. You will close the doors of your houses, close the windows of your homes, you will light a candle for My Immaculate Heart, and you will stand in a circle in front of My Altar to pray and plead for this world, in the face of everything that will happen.

And you will go through the three days of darkness in this way, but you should not pay attention to what will happen in the world, but rather on what must be alive and resplendent within you, through prayer and communion with My Son, and thus you will be protected.

And then, you will call your guardian angels, even if you do not know its name. If it were a necessary grace, you will know what your guardian angel is called, and so you will invoke it so that it may be close to you, as it is until now, in unconditional and silent service, in order to protect your essences from the assaults of My enemy.

Thus, with your groups of prayer firm and established not only in Ecuador, but in the world, joining as nations in prayer, you will be part of My army on the Earth and will become members of the Light, of the Sacred Celestial Armies.

You will be part of the Divine Commands, even though you do not know how this works; but through your pleas and devotion to My Immaculate Heart, you will make this land a Promised Land, and even though the Earth may tremble, the abysses may open, and frightening things may appear on the surface of the Earth, although the moon may be the color of blood, and the sun does not illuminate you for three days, you will not perish.

Be brave, dear children, hold on to My Mantle, unite with My Rosary of Light, for I will protect you. That is My Sacred Task for the end times. This was the Sacred Request of Christ, at the foot of His Holy Cross, before He expired.

Do not fear because of what I tell you. It is time to open your eyes, the eyes of consciousness, so that you may see beyond the material illusion.

Tell this to the priests and believe that everything I say is final and decisive. It is time to truly take up the life of prayer and not just pray once a week in the Sacred Church. Your prayer must be daily, in each movement, in each breath, in each new action, both in your work and in your family, while you clean, while you cook, and also as you fall sleep.

Offer each moment as a Sacred Prayer, because millions of souls in the world are being lost daily, especially those mothers who condemn the unborn with an abortion. Let them repent who have not repented. The Source of Divine Mercy is still open to all. I desire the good for all humanity, but I know that there is an unjust people worldwide, a people that wounds the Kingdoms of Nature in an uncontrollable way.

I would like you, dear children, to learn to take care of your house, which is this sacred planet; that you experienced a healthy education, under the principle of spirituality; that you read good things and not things that contaminate you all the time. Take care of your little children, they must be part of a New Humanity rather than part of a model of world perdition. Motivate your families to experience charity, because they will always be within the good and in peace. Imitate the example of the Holy Family of Nazareth, which is a nearby, rather than distant, example for everyone.

If you live all that I ask of you, you will be within the Kingdom of God, and My Words will not pass, but will remain in your hearts as little seeds of light that will protect you in the end of these times.

That is why I come here to Ecuador, with the sacred motive of consecrating new children who surrender to My Immaculate Heart.

Today I come here to give you this special blessing for all your people, for all your culture, for your original principles that were so positive and good, for your origins and for your roots, that must continue to penetrate into the depths of the human consciousness, so that the sacred spirit of devotion and reverence always be in you, as it has been until now.

The children of Mary can stand up where they are.

Water to bless.

And just as I consecrate those who today take the step and who will not disappoint me, today I also consecrate Ecuador so that it may maintain its inner filiation with Christ.

With the same water that baptized Jesus in the River Jordan, today I spiritually baptize the souls who consecrate themselves to My Immaculate Heart with the principal motive of establishing the good in the world and of removing evil on the Earth, so that unity may be established between hearts and peoples; so that like you, new consecrated souls can emerge that together with the Mother of God, may help to weave that Great Mantle of planetary protection, which today you wear on your bodies as an act of union and of reparation for all those things done that have wounded the Heart of the Father.

May Ecuador again receive this consecration and may the Purpose of God be established here.

And now, sing the hymn of your consecration so that many more may be consecrated.

Today, may this water that has been especially blessed by My Maternal Heart be a Source of Grace poured out, not only upon those who will be consecrated today, but on all who are present here; those who, one day, when they have been more strengthened in prayer and service, will consecrate themselves to My Heart. Remember that all of you are My children and that I love you as My children.

Today, dear children, I also bless these roses, which are the precious symbol of your inner prayer, of your true offering to the Sacred Mother of God, to the Lady of Guadalupe, to the Woman clothed in the Sun, Who in this time unites everything that is separate among you so that universal healing may be established in all those who need it.

I thank you for responding to My Call, and I lovingly wait for you on the next 28th so that My Work may expand even more in the world and more Graces may be poured out in Ecuador.

I thank you.
