SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Beloved children,

Today I return to a world still suffering, mistreated by all that it lives today.

I ask you to come to Me so that I can hold you within My Immaculate Heart.

I have nothing else to offer you but the Sacred Temple of My Heart, where you will be able to experience, in union with Me, the meeting with My Son, and thus be in the Love of God.

Humanity takes longer to take its steps each time, it retrogresses, more and more.

This is the time of purification, it is the time of definition, it is the end time.

That which is written by God is still waiting to be fulfilled in many, many hearts; and that which was once written by the Hand of the Eternal Father may be fulfilled through the redemption of your lives, through the conversion of your hearts, through living and learning about the Law and obedience. I know that millions of children of Mine in the world are very far from this at the moment.

I can offer all of you My Being and My whole Consciousness as a bridge, but also as a portal to reach God so that My children no longer keep becoming lost, no longer keep separating themselves from the Truth, from the Light.

This is the time, My children, when each soldier of My Immaculate Heart will have to respond to God, after having been instructed for so many years by Our Words, by Our Messages.

It is at this moment when each one of you, My soldiers, will have to allow the star of your heart to shine, that commitment that emerged from the Origin of origins, from the moment the Creator Fathers thought of your manifestation and existence.

With this, I want to tell each one of you that you will be able to perceive and recognize that the path and the trajectory that you have lived, up to the current times, has been very long. It has been a path of many challenges, but also of many tests, of different experiences and schools, of many academies. But this is the culminating time, when each one will have to give value to the commitment you have established with Christ, My Son, and thus with the universe.

It is not only through words that you will be able to live this commitment, but also through experience, through action, through the concretion of the Will of God in this material plane.

May your whole consciousness and all your bodies participate in this experience, making it more conscious and real within you each day. Because this will be the only way the planet will be sustained when there are columns, pillars of light of My Son upon the surface of this planet. And as it has been in other times, in other generations, in other humanities, all of humanity will be sustained with just a few.

There are parts of your consciousnesses that do not know the mystery, do not know the real situation of humanity, the reality that the eyes cannot see nor deepen into because everything comes from the spirit, and it was from the spirit, from the center of existence, where all experiences and situations emerged.

With this, you will be able to understand that your consciousnesses are not new spirits, they are rather old spirits that came to this planet to receive an incalculable opportunity which up to now is not yet recognized because, in order to become aware of this reality, you must live your commitment.

Thus, the veils of the consciousness will fall from your eyes, they will no longer cover your sight, but rather you will receive the impulses you will need to take the steps you need to take.

Now that the time changes quickly, and so do the events, you must not waste the opportunities that the Hierarchy gives you.

Because everything that will soon be coming will be very strong movements for humanity. And if your consciousnesses are prepared, they will internally help other consciousnesses of the planet, which live in ignorance, to be prepared on some level of being.

Your true offering to the Plan of God has repercussions in the opportunities and in the possibilities of the rest of humanity so that it may receive an extraordinary and undeserved Grace; so that it may receive an extraordinary and inconceivable forgiveness, for all it does.

At this moment, the prayers open the doors of the universe for this difficult period of transition.

Your attention, and especially your heart, must be in the Heavens, and if they are, you will be with Us in the universe, within the true cosmic reality, and there, through Our impulses, you will participate in the commands that the universe dictates, which are a part of a great spiritual and inner network of operations to help humanity and, above all, the planet.

Thus, you will be able to once again understand that you are not alone, you have never been alone and will never be.

So then, open your consciousnesses, open your hearts and allow the higher reality to come to you to transform you, to place you upon the correct path so that you can truly serve without delay.

At this moment, your inner contact is the great key to strengthen and free you from the temptations, from the harassments, from the planetary instability.

This inner contact only depends on each one of you, because the universe, the Source and Higher Life are there waiting for you to take your steps and thus you may commune, once and again, with the truth, with the Principle that gives birth to the cosmic energy, to the Higher impulse of the Source.

Because all that will happen upon the surface of the Earth will be very intense and you must no longer be asleep, not physically nor spiritually.

You must recognize the signs that the planet is giving you through nature. It is getting ready to live its great and final birth because before the New Human Being or the New Humanity is born, the planet has to be liberated from its retrograde conditions and from all that drags it towards the abyss of the world consciousness.

These are times to know various realities, but they are also times to not miss the opportunities because they will only happen once. As We have told you, these opportunities will not repeat themselves.

These opportunities will not repeat themselves because, in light of the Law, humanity does not deserve them, as its injustice is very great and its indifference is very encompassing.

Keep in mind, My children, that the New Earth will be born first within each one of you, in your state of consciousness and attunement, in your state of prayer and union with the Source.

This is where humanity will first emerge, not outside, not in the materializations that many of My children someday expect.

The New Humanity will emerge as did the Sacred Family, which was sent to Earth for the great mission of the incarnation of the Messiah, the Redeemer.

At the most difficult moments, from the universe will come the great assistance for all those who are within the correspondence with the Law and not within the infractions. Because at some moment Mercy will inevitably make way for Divine Justice.

And it will be in this hour, at that moment, that your commitments must be affirmed in what you have decided to live and practice, in what you have chosen for the rest of your lives.

In the meantime, your Heavenly Mother continues to pray, She continues to supplicate, She tries to intercede before that which is impossible and also inexplicable causes and situations.

All Apparitions that have happened throughout the history of humanity completed many interventions of the Divinity in this race. And the extension of the time of My Presence, in the world and among you, demonstrates a great planetary and divine necessity.

It is a concession that the Eternal Father grants to the Mother of the World, knowing that humanity is out of the Law, out of harmony, of peace, of justice and out of balance in the circumstance of the lack of fraternity, not only human but also spiritual.

Before this panorama of the end of times, which many fear, I tell you, My children, "Do what you came to do, fulfill what you came to fulfill.

Your fears will not solve the situation of humanity and the planet. Your fears will only affirm the concretion of the plans of My adversary in this great network of suffering that he has gestated through you.

Do not be deceived any longer. Be sincere with yourselves and keep your word, do not transgress it. Because when your word is transgressed and is not kept, the inner worlds of your brothers and sisters break and they do not trust.

You are witnesses that, from the most ancient times of the planet, up to now, the Word of God has been unshakeable and has guided the people of God many times in the intent of finding the Promised Land, which is the Kingdom of God within each one of you.

It is time to sustain humanity and the planet.

It is the time for the soldiers to be firm and not be dragged by the oscillations of the world, due to all that humanity offers. Your true and only alliance is in Christ, Our Lord, because in this way you will be in the Heart of God.

You must know that this is a time of great inner and spiritual evaluations. This is the time when the Hierarchy studies the behaviors of humanity and the path it takes, so far away from the Eternal Father.

It is there and it is at this moment when each one of you, My children, has to do your best so that the best can emerge and, in this way, evil may be counteracted in the human consciousness, from the surface of the Earth.

Receive this impulse of Mine, not as a warning, but rather as an opportunity of awareness, of embracing the reality, once and for all, and of assuming it as servers of Christ.

The Plan is in your hands, and it depends on your coherent and wise response.

In the inner planes, many wait for an opportunity, especially those who were struck by the pandemic and died due to the effects of a human scientific intervention.

This is the time of seeing the truth within yourselves and of not confounding yourselves. This is the time to give value to the talents that My Son has deposited within each one of you because His parables will be fulfilled. He is the vine keeper that will come to ask his workers of the vine for the fruits they have produced because from these fruits He will make all things new.

May this new year that is coming be a year of confirmation, but also of reflection, of affirmation in the Hierarchy, because the world keeps agonizing and will keep agonizing until it decides to take the step, and change, not for yourselves, but for humanity, so that My Son may soon return and raise from the ruins those who are fallen and, call to His encounter those who have lost their path due to distraction.

Of the miserable, He will make powerful.

Of the ignorant, He will make knowledgeable.

Of the forgotten, He will make recognized.

Of the poor, He will make rich in spirit.

Of the sick, He will make healers.

Of those who have persisted with Him until today, He will make them brave ones.

And of all, He will make the New Christs be born.

So be it.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
