APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN TAHLEQUAH, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE MEETING OF PRAYER OF JANUARY 13

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As the Mother of the World and Mother of the Original Peoples, I come today to step upon this sacred ground with My Feet, so as to bless it again. I come to dissolve the valley of tears of all Indigenous consciousnesses, elevating hearts and consciousnesses toward God, so that they may receive the Father's Grace and the Universal Mother's Love.

But this is not the only aim with which I am here today. I am also here for the soul of this nation, so that this nation may find, in the end of these times, through the souls that awaken to universal knowledge, the possibility of responding to the Will of the Eternal Father.

The spiritual debt of this nation to other nations of the world has not allowed this people to express its spiritual archetype and Purpose. It has not allowed the consciousnesses of this nation to be liberated from evil.

This is why the path that I offer to you, which is the Christic path, is the way out. A path that will lead you to re-encounter your true Spiritual Purpose, through the Will that the Father so much hopes to fulfill in this nation.

Not only God, but also the whole Universe, knows that the souls of this nation are directly affected by all that which this nation decides to carry out in these times, and souls inevitably remain under this spiritual prison.

This is why I come today to step upon this sacred ground of Oklahoma, with My Feet, so that the entire North-American people may remember the values of the Indigenous Consciousness. Despite all that has happened in this country throughout recent times and the compromise that this country has made with the world, these spiritual values, kept on the inner planes, are still alive.

Thus, just as the North-American people of the great Indigenous nation did, the North-Americans of the current times must turn toward their inner worlds and ask themselves, "What am I doing, and what is the goal of my life?"

In this way, dear children, very slowly, souls will have the door open toward the great awakening, and this people, so deeply contemplated by the Eternal Father since the beginning, will receive the Grace of forgiveness, redemption and rehabilitation.

But I tell you again, dear children, as I have said throughout times, that it is necessary to follow just one path, the path that will always lead you to the Heart of God, because in It you will be able to understand His entire Manifestation and Presence.

This people of the United States must not only continue to pray with more fervor and determination, but it must also supplicate to the Universe so that it may receive the Grace of liberation that is much needed due to the compromises it has made with evil, with My enemy, a condition under which millions of souls in this country are stuck.

However, as your Mother, who loves you and considers you, as the Mother of the whole Indigenous Consciousness, of all original peoples who live here, I come to give you this opportunity to again find the path of rehabilitation and forgiveness, which are important bases so that, through hope, the true aim of each one of your lives may re-emerge, the true Purpose of this nation, so that, through its soul, it may fulfill its written Purpose and be a nation that co-operates and collaborates in the face of the needs of the poorest nations.

All that I am saying now may seem daring to you, but it is not so if there are souls that awaken, if there are hearts that gradually adhere and that dare to break their own structures to live the Purpose of God fully, that is, His Divine and Holy Will.

This will slowly allow the spiritual bases of the Purpose for this country to gradually manifest themselves, not only here in Oklahoma, but also in other parts of this nation.

My children, I need you to understand the importance of this spiritual and inner moment.

I come here with the permission of My Son to bring expression make flourish that which needs to manifest itself here, not only on the inner planes, but also on the external planes. And the consciousnesses that awaken to the Spiritual Purpose, which are a part of this nation, a nation that is in much need of love and light, will be the pillars that My Son so much expects to see expressed on the surface of the Earth, so that the Plan may be reflected here, the Plan that God so much expects. And this goes beyond a mere 'yes', this goes beyond absolute adherence.

What is most important in all this, My children, is unity, which will allow the defeat of the pillars that evil has here and will also allow the dissolution of the contrary currents that dwell here, directly speaking of the soul of this nation.

In this way, you will also help the angel of this country, which carries too much weight on its back, a weight that must be relieved not only by perpetual prayer or selfless service. It is necessary for souls to be aware of this collaboration so that this angel may carry forward its Purpose and service for the United States, because, as the events take place in the world and many of them are fostered and executed by this country, uncertain doors continue to open, and there is no one who can stop this.

This is why I come here for this cause, to close these uncertain and invisible doors, so that souls may no longer live this spiritual captivity that is created and infused by the spiritual debt of this country.

In simple words, My Son sends Me to bring liberation to that which is tied, to break with His Sword the chains of illusion and materialism, which imprison souls, preventing them from emerging and awakening.

In just one Message, dear children, I am trying to tell you many things, but I would have much more to tell you, than just this moment of meeting with Me.

Do not think that everything will change overnight. If your lives change and if your lives transform, you will be like a drop in this great ocean, a drop which, however small, invisible and insignificant, if this drop of Light that your souls are were not in this vast ocean, which is this Plan, this would not be possible, this moment would not be possible.

Thus, you will be able to understand and also perceive how infinite and inexhaustible the Grace of God is, which goes beyond all times, but also all events. It crosses all structures and forms so that His Love may reach His Children, His Creatures, so that His Presence may reach that which is essential, the spirit of each North-American, which must be wide awake and attentive to receive the impulses of the Hierarchy with gratitude.

Since days ago and for the days to come, I will keep praying for you and for your brothers and sisters of this country.

I know that achieving what God so much aspires for and expects will be a sacrifice and also a great surrender. But faith and, above all, trust, transcend all forms, all ideas and even all limitations, because the heart that lives through faith is a heart ignited in a flame, in unity and in divine life, and this allows the fulfillment of any task or commitment.

I ask all My children of the United States to ask yourselves, for the sake of pity and charity:

What is my true spiritual commitment?

What am I doing to fulfill it and live it?

Do I perceive the Presence of the Hierarchy, not only of Its Word, but also Its Love?

What must I do to fulfill this commitment?

How much longer must I wait to be able to live it?

Do I understand that this commitment goes beyond myself and that all has a greater cause?

I leave these questions to My children of North America. And as the Mother of the original peoples, I ask you to contemplate the history of these original peoples and, in perfect communion, recover the values that they live on the inner planes.

I thank you for being here on this day and for listening to Me with bravery, openness and gratitude.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother, the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace, Mother of the Indigenous Nation.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
