

Friday, November 24 of 2023

SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE VIGIL OF PRAYER

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

With the tenderness of a Mother who reigns in the Heavens, I come to meet you so that you may know and remember that the Infinite Light of Christ will always triumph in you when you believe in it, regardless of the errors, tests and all uncertainty.

The Light of Christ is inexhaustible and eternal, and it is this Light that you must incessantly seek in these times when humanity, immersed in darkness, forgets that in its profound and eternal essence there is God.

As a tender Mother, who comes to ignite the inner Light of all Her children, so that the Love of Christ may triumph in creatures, in the same way I come to ignite the Light of Christ in different regions of the planet, especially in the souls who have lived the tragedy of war and persecution.

Our Sacred and Blessed Hearts, which are in Heaven and are present on Earth through the life of all beings of goodwill, will not tire of repeating to you, My children, that Our Divine Consciousnesses come to fulfill the Sacred Plan of Rescue, which was seen by John, the Apostle, in his last days, in the revelations of the Apocalypse and of the Armageddon.

But after all that you have learned and heard from Me, after having converted your lives into a blessing, if you so believe, I would like you today, My children, to place your inner gaze in the Heavens for all those who are lost in darkness, who do not know what true Love is, the Love of a Mother who loves you deeply and consoles you.

This is the Message that I want to leave to all here in Figueira. Because I do not know, My children, at this moment, when I will be able to return here, to My sacred and blessed Figueira, the sacred Fig tree of the fruits of redemption. Because Our Sacred Hearts and also your lives are destined to very decisive and definitive times, when you must finally put into practice all that you have learned throughout the last sixteen years. Because Our Words, Our Messages, Our Graces and blessings, Our rain of Love, must flourish in you as virtues and gifts, as ever broader gestures of charity and love, of unconditional acceptance of the error of your neighbor or even of the problems that you believe they have.

Today, My Immaculate Heart leaves here to you the open door to Christification. Do not fear something that will not do you harm, do not fear something that will do good to your spirit, soul and essence. Cross the door to the unknown and you will not recognize yourselves.

And even if in these times you discover in yourselves many more miseries, no longer fear, because the world is already quite frightened and chastised due to wars. Place your miseries far away from your lives. Surrender them to My Son, who waits for them so much to transform them into Mercy.

And when you think that your purification is greater, or even unbearable, remember those who truly suffer in the world, from hunger, wars, illness. Remember how many of My children in the world are quite lost, but also remember how many Graces you have received, even if the majority were not worthy of them.

I bring you the proof of Our immeasurable Love, a Love that neither conditions nor punishes, a Love that accepts, understands and renews, a Love that is capable of giving an opportunity to the one who does not deserve it. Because all, My children, are still in the time of redemption.

Open your hearts to families, which are the main cell of this beloved Project of God on Earth. Do not question them, but rather accept them, because it is love and closeness that transforms it all. The condemnation and judgment of families is a senseless act of perdition and lack of love.

Change the frequency of your consciousnesses, contemplate families and the planetary reality, just as We contemplate them. Imitate Our gaze of Love and closeness regarding families and all those who suffer. Because in truth I tell you, My children, that none of you knows who you are in your deepest essence and in your spirit.

But since the first steps of the Cross, since the first Stations of the Way of the Cross, while My Son carried the Cross of this entire world, God gave Me the Grace of knowing in depth what He saw in each one of His Children, although many in that time were already rebellious and rebuking My own Son, Who gave His life for you and will always give it.

This is the essence of the one who wants to be an apostle: live these principles and these very simple codes, because in truth this is what the world needs.

Enough with wars and judgments, enough with divisions and separation. May your lives be a part of the Source of Christ's Love, may each brother and sister that draws near to you feel the Love of My Son, because if you do so it will be fulfilled.

I bring these spiritual foundations to you because you must not forget them in the times to come.

My Son will come to the world so that you may account to Him for all that He gave to you. But do not forget that He will come as a Being of Mercy, rather than as a judge. He will come to seek the talents He granted to you. And to live His talents is to place them into practice day by day, in a profound life of prayer and supplication, in a life of eternal and untiring service as well as at a moment of adoration.

As a tender Mother, I come to teach you about the Good, because the Good is what I want for you and for your brothers and sisters. If souls became immersed in the essence of the Good, the lives of people would be quite different. This is why on this surface and in this school, you will have to learn to love every day time and again, because the Eternal Father is so perfect and good that He will never allow you to ignore the rules of evolution. Because Our own Sacred Hearts have also gone through these rules and lived them, although, in the greatest silence and anonymity, Our Consciousnesses were already Divine.

Our Spirits and Our Consciousnesses, the Spirit and Consciousness of each Sacred Heart, of Christ, of Mary and of Saint Joseph, were reflecting, upon material life, the simplicity of spirit and full trust in the Project of God, despite the apparent failure that many believed My Son was living on Calvary.

This is why His triumph took place through silence, His triumph took place through acceptance of all that He lived. Although His Sacred Heart did not deserve the situation. The Living God, through his Incarnated Son, accepted and assumed all the errors and sins of the world, just as We, the Divine Messengers, have continued to do.

Because I confess to you, My children, that there is no other way out. Sooner or later your lives must surrender to the Creator, regardless of your experiences, of your comings and goings. Therefore, do not delay, because there is no longer time left. Accept, from the simplest and most profound life, to live the honest vow of consecration, so that the world may also be consecrated.

And once again, I bring you the Kingdom of Peace, so that not only Peace may be established in you, your families and nations, but also so that you may ardently aspire for this Peace, through the Christic Light that blesses and congregates you today.

I will never condemn you. My Hand will always approach you, just as My Immaculate Heart approaches you, making the spiritual life of each being a caress of God.

If you cannot be kneeling down while I am present, do not be concerned, because it is the soul that must be prostrated before God. Just as His Servant and Slave is prostrated at this moment before the Throne.

Is it possible, My beloveds, that someday you will be able to see your souls prostrated together with Me before the Throne of God, just as all the Choirs of Heaven prostrate before the Father? To perpetually sing His Sacred and Blessed Names, to feel, in the innermost depth, the happiness of belonging to His Celestial Kingdom, this Infinite and Universal Kingdom that all souls should yearn for and incessantly seek.

On this last day, of this first part of the pilgrimage, in Brazil, I come to bid farewell to My children of Figueira.

This is why I tell you again, My children, do not fear the unknown, fly high as the birds, attain the ardent Fountain of God, which emanates constant impulses of Light and Mercy. No longer feel tied to this world, believe in the liberating Power of Christ, My Beloved Son.

Today, I come to grant to all of you and to those who are listening at this moment, one more step in the trust of consecration.

Have faith, My Son will fulfill His promise. His hour is now near. The time of the re-encounter, of having the Master face to face with you, is drawing near; you must be ready for that, because it will be in the moment you least expect.

It is the time of His reappearance, a time that is fulfilled through the Books of the Masters of the East. Just as it was announced to many instruments of God, that the time would come for the reappearance of Christ.

Today, I would like you to feel Me as the tender Mother of Peace, to entrust your souls to My Heart, to entrust your lives to My Arms, to feel secure in each move and at each step, to detach from the past, because the past is now past, children. I would like you to walk confidently in the eternal present and to look at the future with renewed hope in the fulfillment of the time of healing and redemption, of the Advent of Christ, My Son.

Through My Heart, which I will still leave open to the Throne of God for a moment, His Cosmic and Infinite, Immaterial and Eternal Consciousness contemplates you and the universe.

How many, at this moment, are benefitted by this?

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We will sing the song that our Mother asked, to bid farewell to Her, in love, gratitude and reverence. She will listen attentively to this song, as an offering of Her dear children: "To Look at You."

I thank you for responding to My call.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Sing, says our Mother, from the depths of your soul and heart. Just as if we were singing to Mary for the first time, and had the Grace of expressing to Her all that which we feel for Her, just as She, in Her immeasurable Love, expresses all that She feels for Her children.

Those who want to be consecrated as Children of Mary may come. Even if you are not wearing the Mantle of Mary, You may come, as Mary will place Her Spiritual Mantle on you to consecrate you as Her children.

Let us sing.

Let us truly sing to Mary, surrendering our lives to Her.

May all come closer to the stage.

Let us be consecrated at the foot of Her Altar.

The Lady of Luján will have Her Feet touch Argentina, and will pilgrimage in faith with Her children, to renew the Purpose of this beloved nation.

So be it.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

To conclude, we will pray, before our Divine Mother, "Hail Mary" in Portuguese, in Spanish and in English, so that we may offer this moment for the consecration of the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Let us pray.

And all of us together, as one voice, let us thank our Mother:

Thank You, Divine Mother, for all that You give us!

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.