

Thursday, August 8 of 2024

ANNUAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Despite My farewell, as well as the farewell of My Beloved Son, I will continue accompanying the steps of those who have decided to live in fidelity to God.

We are at a moment similar to that of the apostles of the past, when, after the Ascension of Our Lord, He sent the Holy Spirit, the Great Consoler, so that, as blazing tongues of fire over the heads of the apostles and of Our Lady, the Holy Spirit could guide, from that moment on, the Christic Work of evangelization and apostolate.

I want to tell each one of My children that, after these seventeen years of meetings, you are at this similar moment, for you to make an inner decision from each one: whether you accept, for the rest of your lives, this path that My Son has offered to you and in which your Most Holy Mother has lovingly and maternally taken care of each one of your souls up to the present moment, as precious flowers in the Gardens of God.

For this reason, I Am here, dear children, not only to celebrate this moment with you, as a loving, humble and serving Mother, but I Am also here today, sent by God Himself and at the request of Our Most Beloved Lord Christ Jesus, to support you at this moment of transition; because the moment so long awaited by Christ since the beginning has arrived. Since the year 2007 up to the present moment all has been a preparatory experience, in which there have been learnings, successful acts and errors.

However, on this day, dear children, My beloved ones, it is My wish that My sweet Voice may reverberate in your inner worlds from this day on. That from this moment on, and for the times to come, you may continue to study the Gospel of Christ, the one that He has been dictating from 2013 up to the present moment, as well as that each one of your lives not only may continue to be immersed into the power of the prayers of the heart, but also into the Divine Instructions that My Son has left in the parables and in the infinite and profound experience of the Sacraments.

Thus, dear children, as My Son has announced in recent days, this August 8 places each one of you before the closure of a cycle, but now of a really definitive cycle, in which certain situations will no longer ever be repeated, not only in you, but also in the whole world.

But also this August 8, so definitive and special, places you before the path of the future, that Project that God still has thought of carrying out through souls, through each heart that has always said 'yes' to Him.

As a kind Mother, I come to support this moment in each one of My children, and I also come to thank in person each of My children who has dared to respond to My call until today, who has opened up to listen to My spiritual summoning from the first moment, when each one of you made contact with My Divine and Sovereign Word.

Now it is no longer time for more Messages. It is time, dear and beloved children, for you to be My living Message on Earth, with all its attributes, with all the spiritual treasures, with all the Graces that were granted to you, from the first moment and from the first day when each one of you had the opportunity to be before Me at an Apparition.

I want you to know, My beloveds, just as I want each one of My children in the world to know, that this moment that I remind you of today of your first contact with Me, this moment will never, not ever, be erased from your souls.

In it is found the impulse that you needed in your lives. In it is found the spiritual bridge that I placed, at the request of My Beloved Son, on each one of your paths, for you to come out of the unreal life, to enter the real life of the spirit.

I want you to keep this very much in mind at this moment and, on this day, August 8; because from this moment, and up to the present moment, you will understand the Work of Redemption and Mercy that My Son has built in each one that He has called upon through their spiritual name.

Today, My angels, who accompany your Lady, write this final moment in their Books, in which, through your most sensible and true decisions, as My Son has said, you will begin to write this new history in this new cycle.

And upon your backs and above all within your hearts, there will no longer weigh the agony of the guilt for what you did not do well or the step that you have not yet dared to take.

My Son, in this month of August, came to liberate you so that you may definitively be His new apostles, the Christs of the last times, as it is written in the Heart of God.

But now, My beloved children, this path will demand from each one greater responsibility and honesty. For this reason, My Son came to remove from your faces the masks that you have created, so that the true being and the true soul, which dwells in each one of you, may arise and emerge.

Definitively allow the spirit, in each one of you, to govern you; for each one of your spirits, which was created in the image and likeness of God, already knows from the beginning what it is that you came here to do on Earth; what it is that you came to learn, out of love and for redemption; what it is that you came to fulfill according to what the Will of God has determined.

Now, after seventeen years, I can contemplate you and observe you as adults on the spiritual path; I can contemplate you as persons and above all as souls who will no longer hide in guilt or in playing the role of victims, who will no longer step back before the Call of God, who will no longer hide from the need that will turn up on your paths, but rather will fulfill it with bravery and determination under the impulse that the Divine Purpose provides for you.

Because My Son, I remind you, is preparing His Return to Earth, and this will not take long to happen. Everyone can see, with their own eyes, the cruel scenario of the surface, the conflicts, the wars, and the impunity that only worsens.

However, this moment had already been written; and now it is necessary, through the bravery of each prayerful heart, through each brave heart, to face the end of these times, which is now coming.

For this reason, My beloved children, it is imperative for you to live fidelity and truth, because in this way your own feet will not be confused about the path and will not deviate through unnecessary experiences, but in your minds and above all in your hearts, with the power of the spirit in each being, you must visualize the Divine Purpose in front of your eyes, the blazing flame of the Love of God, which was created in the Source, which is eternal and inexhaustible and drives the renewal of this whole universe throughout the cycles.

My children, will you enter this new cycle that Christ is presenting to you?

I do not need you to respond at this moment. I need you to first listen to My Word and then live it, for you to be able to respond to My Son with maturity and discernment.

My beloveds, the world is drowning in its own emotions, and this generates confusion and conflict.

As the Law of Harmony approaches the Earth, to correct humanity for all the Laws it abandoned and from which it deviated, it is inevitable, My beloved children, that on this August 8, the events precipitate on the planet.

However, do not take this as a warning or as something extraordinary; the currents of the universe exist to align souls with this trajectory that God created since the origin of each being.

Do you now understand the importance of this decision in this new cycle?

Many impulses have been received, your souls have welcomed these impulses throughout the times. Now it is moment for this Divine Instruction and this Sacred Spiritual knowledge to become flesh of your own flesh, to become word of your own word, to become concretized in the material life and on all planes.

For this to happen, there is still a little time, as My Son has told you, for you to amend your lives and correct yourselves. Because great will be the events that will come to the world and you must be strengthened in faith when We are no longer here, because We pray and because We contemplate this great day, when you will, for yourselves, assume the Plan of God.

I want to thank all those who have consecrated themselves to My Heart and to those who will live this consecration day by day and those who will renew this consecration to My Immaculate Heart throughout the coming times.

Today, when the Infinite unites to Earth, when the Divine Source contacts and draws near humanity for all My children to return to their original purity, from the Sacred Kingdom of Lys and from the unfathomable heart of Aurora, where your Mother once presented Herself to call upon the world for a change in consciousness and for the blazing awakening of hearts, I come to renew your act of consecration to My Maternal and Immaculate Heart, under the spiritual and special blessing that My Son has granted this day for each one of you.

May this consecration fulfill you, renew you and impel you to continue moving on in the rebuilding of this humanity, and upon the return of faith and hope in hearts, so that everyone, someday, on some plane of your consciousnesses, may feel healed and cured by the Grace of God.

I thank you for these seventeen years of so many shared moments, so many supplications heard, so much devotion granted by each one of My children. Because all that you radiate to Me, does not remain in My Heart, but I return it as Graces and opportunities for souls, because it is to Our Creator that we owe the gratitude and glory for all that we have received.

I bless you in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ and Our Most High Creator, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today the Sacred Figueira, in this month of August, begins to show its first sprouts of the advent of its new cycle, its original and primordial cycle.

Sacred Figueira,
welcome all your children as a Spiritual Mother,
all those who were called to be under your treetop of Light, to be nourished by the roots of your Instruction.

Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Thank You, Divine Mother, for all that You give us.

Thank You, Divine Mother, for all that You give us.

Thank You, Divine Mother, for all that You give us.

At the request of Our Lady, we will close this work through a song that She has asked of us. We will sing "Mirate a Ti" (Looking at You) and, through this song, each one of us, at this moment, will make their inner synthesis before the Immaculate Heart of Mary, deeply giving thanks for all that was received and entrusted to us.

From the Kingdom of Lys, in Fatima, we thank each one of the brothers and sisters who, throughout these 17 years, has faithfully sustained this Work. And we invite you, in the name of Our Mother, to confidently enter this new cycle that Christ, out of Love, presents to us.

Thank you!